ENGLAND.

LONDON, October 24.—The papers refer to the speeches of Johnson and Stanley. The Times says that it believes in a few days England and America will be united, without the ghost of a quarrel, but Lord Stanley's other prophesies are premature.

The Daily News says that Mr. Johnson's task in settling matters at variance between England and America is light, for it was nearly completed by Mr. Adams, his predecessor. Referring to the friendly meeting between Messrs. Johnson and Laird, the News says that Mr. Johnson's charity towards Laird, who built the Alabama, applies equally to Semmes, who sailed her.

The Telegraph rejoices in the new era of diplomacy as exemplified in the Ministers' meeting and discusses in a forcible manner public questions.

The Standard says if the result of the negotiations pending between the two countries proves futile, it will certainly not be the fault of either of the ministers.

LIVERPOOL, October 23.—Some people stayed away from the dinner given to Reverdy Johnson last night, because Mr. Laird was invited to attend. The climax of the banquet was reached when the chairman introduced Mr. Laird to the American Minister. They grasped hands finally, and shook them cordially, and held each other by the hand while exchanging some words.

LONDON, October 24.—Evening.—Dispatches received to-day state that the authorities of Sydney have received positive proof that the shooting of Prince Alfred was the result of a deeply laid plot. Details will be given to the public in a few days.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—There is good reason to believe that the following is the substance of the protocol which has been agreed to by Mr. Johnson and Lord Stanley for the settlement of the Alabama dispute. A mixed commission consisting of eight persons appointed by Great Britain, and eight by the United States, is to sit in London and examine the claim presented, whether English or American. Each case is to be argued by the claimant either in person or by counsel, and the commission will make a final award. The question of international law is to be referred to the arbitration of the Emperor of Russia. The protocal awaits the approval of Secretary Seward.

SPAIN.

MADRID, October 23.—A large meeting was held here to-day, at which speeches were made and resolves adopted in favor of the abolition of slavery throughout the Spanish Dominions.

PARIS; Oct. 24—Evening.—The Avenier National, the Democratic national organ of this city, says Ferdinand has declined the offer of the crown of Spain. It is thought that the Duke of Montpensier would accept it.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LONDON, October 24.—Consuls, 94¾@94¼. Five-Twenties, 78¼. Illinois Central, 97; Erie, 30¾.

LIVERPOOL, October 24.—Cotton closed firm at an advance; middling uplands at 10¾@10¾d; Orleans at 11@11¼d; sales—15,000 bales. Breadstuffs quiet and unchanged. Provisions unchanged. Produce—Tallow firmer, but not quotably higher; Spirits Petroleum at 10½; common rosin, 5s. 6d.; Linseed Cakes, 10 pounds, 15 shillings.

LONDON, October 24.—Petroleum higher at 1s. per gallon.

HAVRE, October 24.—Cotton firmer, but not quotably higher.

MADRID, October 24.—The Government will immediately revise the pension list.

LONDON, October 24.—Advices from Paraguay state that Lopez has arrived at Vielata.

HAVANA, October 24.—There is no sugar in market.

PARIS, October 24.—Bourse closed quiet. Rentes, 70 francs 27 centimes.

FRANKFORT, October 24—Evening.—Five-Twenties closed firmer and higher, at 78¼ a78¾.

LONDON, October 24—Evening.—Tallow, 52s. 6d. per cwt. for St. Petersburg Y. C.

HAVRE, October 24—Evening.—Cotton firmer; tres ordinaire, 138 francs per cwt.

ANTWERP, October 24—Evening.—Petroleum closed quiet and steady at 50 francs 75 centimes for standard white.

NEW ORLEANS.

Lawlessness Throughout the State—Murders and Outrages on the Increase.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, October 24.—The Tribune's New Orleans special says: Outrages and murders are increasing throughout the State. Last night a mob of disguised men broke into the jail at Carrolton and killed two negro prisoners. The Evening Picayune says no one can blame them. At a large fire in Gretna last night, a disturbance occurred, and three blacks were killed and several wounded. The rest fled to Algiers and the swamps. This morning quite a large number of white men crossed from here. General Rosseau stopped the ferry boat and sent a company of infantry to aid the hundred policemen who were there preserving the peace.

The Evening Times says: The long impending conflict seems fairly commenced. General Rosseau has requested two additional regiments. At nine o'clock an armed mob of four hundred men ordered the Metropolitan police to leave Gretna.

NEW ORLEANS, October 25.—At the political riot last night, nine fatal casualties and a number of wounded are reported on the various routes through which the procession passed.

Billiard Tournament.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, October 25.—The billiard tournament for the championship of Ohio closed last night. Henry Choate received the golden cue, Fred Ackerman the second prize of one hundred and fifty dollars, and Anthony Honing the third of one hundred dollars.

NEW YORK CITY.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, October 24, 1868.

EX-REBEL OFFICERS ARRESTED FOR BEING DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.

Gen. John B. Magruder, of the rebel army, and Ex-Lieut. Higgins, of the rebel navy, were last night arrested by the police for being drunk and disorderly, and insulting females. Both were locked up.

PANIC IN THE STOCK BOARD.

There is quite a panic in the stockboard to-day on Erie, which opened at 43, declining to 39¾, and recovered to 40¼. Heavy transactions were made. It has been rumored that from ten to twenty millions of new stock has been issued, and that the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad has been leased. Several small failures are reported.

DISPLEASURE AT MINISTER JOHNSON'S COURSE.

A special cable dispatch states that the loyal Americans and English friends of the United States are galled at the recent proceedings of Minister Johnson in Liverpool, and think him anxious to go out of his way to make soft speches, and that he went too far in allowing himself to be introduced to Laird, and greeting him in such a friendly manner, and that he fraternizes too much with rebels and English enemies, misrepresents the sentiments of the majority, and places the United States in a humiliating attitude.

HEAVY CLAIM AGAINST VANDERBILT.

Hon. John T. Hoffman, referee in the case of the Nicaragua Transit Company against Commodore Vanderbilt, to compel the latter to pay the former $3,000,000, which has been pending since 1850, has awarded the Company $1,850,000. The major part of the claim was for good will money received by the Commodore from the Pacific Mail Company, and is disallowed.

NATURALIZATION.

The following is the business of naturalization here, according to the figures in the Democratic and Republican naturalization offices: the former have issued 7,000 and the latter 2,091. They are undoubtedly underestimated. The Tribune says twenty thousand naturalizations have been made.

POISONING CASE.

Robert G. Gamble and Mrs. Hugar charged with poisoning Gamble's wife, whose examination has been in progress for some weeks, were yesterday honorably acquitted and discharged.

FORGING NATURALIZATION PAPERS.

The examination of Rosenburg, charged with forging naturalization papers, commenced to-day. Considerable evidence was given.

BROOKS NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.

Hon. James Brooks has received the unanimous nomination from Democratic organizations in the Eighth Congressional District.

AID TO PERUVIAN EARTHQUAKE SUFFERERS.

The Peruvian Legation announces the receipt of the subscriptions at nearly twenty-one thousand dollars for the sufferers by the earthquake in Peru and Equador.

PERJURY.

Hugh Bensley has been arraigned in Jersey City, charged with perjury in connection with naturalization, and held for trial.

PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Protestant Episcopal Board of Missions met last evening, and recommended all appropriations hereafter to be made payable in gold.

DEATHS.

The deaths in this city for the week were three hundred and sixty-nine; marriages, one hundred and ninety; births, two hundred and thirteen.

CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY.

The centennial anniversary of the old John street Methodist Church will be celebrated to-morrow.

PUGILISTS UNDER BONDS.

Magruder and Higgins, the pugilists, were to-day put under bonds to keep the peace for six months.

ENGLISH CRICKETERS GONE HOME.

The All England Eleven cricketers sailed to-day for home, on the steamer City of Baltimore.

FOR CALIFORNIA.

The steamship Henry Chauncy to-day took out about one thousand passengers for California.

HIGH PRICE FOR A SEAT.

Six thousand dollars in currency was bid to-day, for a seat in the Stock Exchange.

FROM BREMEN.

The steamer Arago, from Bremen, arrived here to-day.

WEST VIRGINIA ELECTION.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WHEELING, W. V., October 23.—Wood county, formerly reported as Democratic, it is ascertained gives a Republican majority of 150. This insures the election of Duvall to Congress in the First District by, it is thought, 1,000 majority.

Marion county gives a Republicrn majority of about 200, a small Democratic gain.

Monongalia county the Republicans claim by from five to seven hundred majority.

Partial returns from Marshall county show a Republican majority of five hundred. The Republicans claim that their majority in the county will exceed that of 1866.

Wert county gives a reduced Republican majority.

The Democratic gains thus far are not sufficient to overcome the Republican majority of 1866, which was over 6,000. The Republicans to-night claim the State from 2,000 to 3,000.

October 24, P. M.—The Republican majority is estimated at not less than 3,000 in the State.

PHILADELPHIA.

Election Contests—Fire — Arrest — Robberies.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PHILADELPHIA, October 24.—The election contests are proceeding in our courts, and there is promise of a vast amount of litigation ahead.

Armstrong's woolen mill, north of this city, was totally destroyed by fire last night. Loss fifty thousand dollars; partially insured.

A womah named Betty Hendricks has been arrested here for obtaining two thousand dollars at the bank on a forged check. She is said to be quite an extensive operator in this line.

A band of robbers are committing depredations in West Philadelphia. They operate under masks. Last night they robbed a dwelling of one thousand dollars in bonds, some silver ware, and a considerable amount of money, and frightened a young lady out of her senses.

RELIGIOUS.

The Episcopal Convention.

NEW YORK, October 24.

In the Episcopal Convention to-day, Rev. Haight, of New York, for the Committee on Canons, submitted a report, setting forth that in their opinion it was inexpedient to accept the proposed amendment to Canon 5, Title 3. Accepted.

The same gentleman reported the following new Canon: "No minister of this Church shall solemnize marriage in any case between parties where there is a husband or wife of either party living, save only in the case of divorce for the crime of adultery." The Canon was laid on the table for future action.

A series of resolutions on the character of the choral music to be used at future Conventions, gave rise to a somewhat acrimonious debate, when the resolutions were withdrawn.

Mr. Doe, of Wisconsin, introduced a resolution to the effect that the future conventions shall not be held in consecrated churches.

The resolution was debated and laid on the table.

Rev. Dr. Haight, from the Committee on Canons, reported an amendment to Canon 2, Title 2, on the trial of clergymen. Laid on the table.

Two messages were then received from the House of Bishops. The first asked for the prayers of the lay and clerical delegates, for the better guidance of the Bishops in their action in relation to an Indian Bishopric, and the second was on the subject of the re-marriage of divorced persons.

The House of Bishops announced they had adopted the following to Canon 13, title 2, on marriage and divorce: "No minister of this Church shall unite in matrimony any persons of whom one has been divorced, from any case arising subsequent to previous marriage other than adultery, nor a person divorced for his or her adultery. For the purposes of this Canon the divorce is hereby defined to be 'divorce a vinculo matrimons'—formally decided by the civil court." The Canon was debated at great length and finally both it and the Canon reported by the Committee on Canons were recommitted to that Committee.

The Committee on Canons reported the following:

Resolved, That Canon 2, title 2, is hereby amended so as to read, first, "Every minister of the Church shall be liable to presentment and trial on charges for the following offenses, viz: Second, Crime or immorality. Third, Holding and teaching publicly, or privately and advisedly, any doctrine contrary to that held by the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. Fourth, A violation of the Constitution or Canons of the General Convention. Fifth, Violation of the Constitution or Canons of the Diocese to which he belongs. Sixth, any act which involves a breach of his ordination. On being found guilty, he shall be admonished, suspended or degraded, according to the Canons of the Diocese in which the trial takes place, unless otherwise provided for by the General Convention."

After a heated discussion, the Canon was adopted.

The Chair announced the following persons as a Committee of Laymen, on the subject of devising measures for the better support of the clergy: Geo. N. Gordon, of Alabama; D. L. Turner, of California; O. S. Seymour, of Connecticut; Jos. Brown, of Delaware; Daniel S. Oakley, of Florida; R. D. Moore, of Georgia; Samuel H. Treat, of Ilinois; John S. Irwin, of Indiana; George Green, of Iowa; C. C. Parsons, of Kansas; J. W. Stevensen, of Kentucky; George Lacey, of Louisinan; Robert H. Gardiner, of Maine; F. W. Brune, of Maryland; George C. Shattuck, of Massachusetts; Charles C. Trowbridge, of Michigan; Isaac Atwater, of Minnesota; William M. Ballou, Mississippi; Geo. H. Gill Missouri; James W. Van Nostrand, Nebraska; Charles A. Tufts, N. H; Joseph, H. Thompson, New Jersey; Armand J. Rossett, North Carolina; —— Walch, Pennsylvania; Geo. W. Cass, Pittsburgh; Geo. L. Cook, Rhode Island; Edward McCready, South Carolina; Geo. R. Fairbanks, Tennessee; James H. Cutler, Texas; Roderick Richardson, Vermont; B. Johnson Barbour, Virginia; George C. Whater, Western New York, and J. Rodwell Doe, Wisconsin.

Frightful Railroad Accident—Two Persons Killed and Forty Wounded.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY, October 24.—On the Hudson River Railroad last night, near Greenbush, the smoking car and two passenger cars were thrown from the track and smashed into atoms. About forty persons were injured, several seriously. A lady, supposed to be from Erie, Pa., was killed. Mr. Jno. Davidson, of Lyons, New York, died at the Delavan House this morning. Mr. W. D. Murphy, of Cortland, Mass., was badly hurt. Also, Mrs. Adolphus, of Auburn, injured. Several others were injured, and are at the Delavan House.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

The accident was caused by a broken rail. The train consisted of four passenger coaches, five sleeping cars, a freight and baggage car and an express car. Three passenger coaches and two sleeping coaches were thrown from the track and are completely wrecked. Mrs. M. C. Tyler, of Northeastern Pennsylvania, who had been making purchases in New York, was killed outright. John Davidson, Railroad Conductor, of Wayne county, was fatally injured about the head. He was brought to the Delavan House and died this morning.

The accident is attributed to carelessness on the part of the Railroad Company in failing to have a splintered rail repaired. Fortunately the stoves held to their fastenings, and thus the wreck was saved from conflagration. A number of prominent railroad men were on the train and went westward. Of their number Mr. Davidson was the only one injured.

Government Detective Murdered.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, October 24.—Henry D. Christian, a Government detective, was found, last night, in an alley with a terrible wound on the back of his head, from which he died at about one o'clock to-day. Christian had been active in ferreting out frauds in tobacco, and had been instrumental in procuring witnesses against various parties, which has given rise to the suspicion that he was attacked in consequence of his position. He was robbed of a watch and some money, so that the theory is doubtless wrong. He remained insensible from the time he was found until he died, no information could, therefore, be obtained from him.

Death of General Cassius Fairchild.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MILWAUKEE, October 24.—General Cassius Fairchild, United States Marshal, and brother of Governor Fairchild, died this morning, of an old wound received at the battle of Shiloh.

—Horatio Seymour made a speech at Chicago on Saturday night. He is moving this way.

Letter from President Johnson on the Finances of the Country—Bureau Agent Murdered—Secretary McCulloch and Commissioner Rollins—Elections in Unreconstructed States, &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25, 1868.

ANDY JOHNSON ON FINANCE.

The President of the United States has addressed the following letter to General Ewing:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, October 24, 1868.

DEAR SIR—In a recent conversation upon the subject of finance, you expressed a desire to be furnished with some of the leading facts then mentioned, touching the national expenditures and the public debt. I now comply with your request, regretting, however, that other and more pressing matters have prevented me from more closely illustrating the absolute necessity for an immediate reform in the financial operations of the Government. In 1776, our national indebtedness was proclaimed, and, after an exhaustive and bloody struggle of seven years, was, in 1783, acknowledged by the parent government. In 1787 the Federal Constitution was framed, and in 1789 the Government went into operation under its provisions, burdened with a debt of $75,000,000, created during the war of the revolution. Immediately upon the organization of Congress, measures were devised for the payment of the notional obligations and the restoration of the public credit, and when, in 1812, war was declared against Great Britain, the debt had been reduced to $45,000,000. It was then largely increased by the three years' struggle that ensued between the two nations until, in 1816, it had reached the sum of $127,000,000. When peace was again established, provision was made for the earliest practicable liquidation of this indebtedness, in order that it might not be a permanent incumbrance on the people. Under wise and economical legislation, the entire debt was paid in a period of twenty years, and the extinguishment of the national debt filled the land with rejoicing, and was one of the great events of President Jackson's administration. Even after its payment a large fund remained in the Treasury, which was, for safe-keeping, deposited with the several States on condition that it should be returned when required by the public wants. In 1849, the year after the termination of an expensive war with Mexico, we found ourselves involved in a debt of $64,000,000, and this was the amount owed by the Government in 1860, just prior to the outbreak of the rebelion. In the spring of 1861 the war of rebellion commenced. Each year of its continuance made an enormous addition to the debt, so that when in the spring of 1865, the nation successfully emerged from the dreadful conflict, the obligations of the Government reached the vast amount of $2,600,000,000. They had not yet however, attained their highest point, for when the army and navy had been paid, the volunteer force disbanded and the navy largely reduced, it was found, in February, 1866, that our indebtedness exceeded $2,800,000,000.

Having thus referred to the indebtedness of the Government at various periods of its existence, it may be well to call attention to a brief statement of facts connected with its expenditures. From the 4th of March, 1789, to the 30th of June, 1861, the entire public expenditures were $1,700,000,000. Although covering a period of seventy-two years, this amount seems small when compared with the expenses of the Government during the recent war of four years duration, for from the 1st of July, 1861, to the 30th of June, 1865, they reached the enormous aggregate of $3,300,000,000. An investigation into the disbursements since the 1st of July, 1865, shows that by adding to the expenditures of the last three years, the estimated cost of administering the Government for the year ending the 30th of June, 1869, we obtain the sum of $1,600,000,000 as the amount required for the four years immediately following the cessation of hostilities, or nearly as much as was expended during the seventy-two years that preceded the war, it will be seen that from 1791 to 1865 our public debt was at no time more than $127,000,000, while subsequently four years of civil war expanded it to $2,800,000,000. It will also be perceived that while to 1861 the largest annual disbursement was not quite $74,000,000 for the year 1858, the expenditures during the last three years of peace have successively been $520,000,000, $346,000,000, and $393,000,000, $372,000,000 being the amount which it is estimated, will be necessary for the year ending the 30th of June next. In making this comparison, we should remember that during the long interval between 1789 and 1861, the Government was frequently required to make expenditures of an extraordinary character. Large sums were paid to Indians as annuities, and for the purchase of their lands. Expensive wars were waged against powerful tribes. Louisiana was acquired from France at a cost of $15,000,000. Florida, in consideration of $5,000,000, was ceded to the United States by Spain. California became a part of our possessions, on payment of $15,000,000, while for $10,000,000 our Government secured from Texas the territory of New Mexico. During these periods of our history, we were also engaged in war with Great Britain and Mexico, the first waged against one of the most powerful nations of the world, the other made additional expenses by the prosecution of military operations in the enemy's territory.

The startling facts, thus concisely stated, suggested an inquiry as to the cause of this increase in the expenditures and indebtedness of the country during the civil war. The maintenance of the federal government was the one great purpose that animated our people, and that economy which should always characterize our financial operations were overlooked in the great efforts of the nation to preserve its existence. Many abuses which had their origin in the war continued to exist long after it had been brought to a triumphant conclusion, and the people having become accustomed to a lavish expenditure of public money for an object so dear to them as the preservation of their integrity, and of their free institutions; have patiently borne taxation of the most oppressive character. Large sums of money continued to be extorted from them and squandered in useless and extravagant expenditures. Enormous expenditures are demanded for purposes, the accomplishment of which require a large standing army. The provisions of the Constitution and the subjugation of the States to negro domination, with a military establishment costing in time of peace not less than one hundred million dollars annually, and a debt, the interest upon which draws from the Treasury each year one hundred and fifty million dollars, making a total of two hundred and fifty million dollars for these two items of expenditure alone. Retrenchment has become an absolute necessity, or bankruptcy must soon overtake us and involve the country in its paralysing results. If, however, a wise economy be adopted, the taxes may soon be materially reduced, not merely for the benefit of a few, but in the interest of all. A revenue would remain sufficient for the administration of the Government as well as for such a reduction of the public debt as would in a few years relieve the people from the millions of interest now annually drawn from these resources. The idea that the debt is to become permanent should be discountenanced as involving taxation too heavy to be borne. The payment of the amount in interest every sixteen years is equal to the original sum. The gradual liquidation of the public debt would by degrees release the large capital invested in the securities of the Government, which, seeking remuneration in other sources of income would add to the faith of the nation, upon which it is now a great drain. This immense debt, if permitted to become permanent and increasing, must eventually be gathered into the hands of the few and enable them to exert a dangerous and controlling power in the affairs of the government. The debtors would become the servants of the lenders, the creditors the masters of the people. It is our boast that we have given freedom to 3,000,000 of slaves. It will be then our shame that by their own toleration of usurpation and profligacy, forty millions of people have enslaved themselves and exchanged slave holders for new taskmasters in the shape of bondholders and tax gatherers, hence the vital issue; whether Congress and its arbitrary assumptions of authority shall supercede the supreme law of the land; whether in time of peace the country shall be controlled by a multitude of tax collectors and a standing army, the one almost as numerous as the the other, and making the debt a permanent burden upon the productive industry of the people, or whether the Constitution, with each and all its guaranties, shall be sacredly preserved; whether now, as in 1789 or 1816, provisions shall be made for the payment of our obligations at as early a period as practicable, that the fruits of their labor may be enjoyed by our citizens rather than used to build up and sustain a moneyed monopoly at home. Abroad the contest is not mainly who shall occupy the principal offices in the peoples gift, but whether the high behests of the Federal Constitution shall be observed and maintained in order that our liberties may be preserved, the Union of the States restored; that our Federal system may be unimpaired, fraternal feeling re-established; that our national strength may be renewed, the expenditures diminished; that taxation may be lightened and the public debt once more, extinguished, that it may not injuriously affect the life, prosperity and morals of the nation, believing that for the redress of the great wrongs and the correction of the many abuses under which the country is laboring, we must look to the people and that in them is our hope.

I am, very truly your friend,
ANDREW JOHNSON.

TO GEN. THOS. EWING.

WASHINGTON, October 24, 1868.

TEXAS CATTLE.

Official notice has been received that Texas cattle will be admitted to Canada at Windsor and Sarnia in the future, the prohibition having been removed.

FREEDMEN'S BUREAU AGENT MURDERED.

Information has been received at the Freedmen's Bureau, through unofficial sources, that Wm. C. Kirkham, agent for the Freedmen's Bureau for Northeastern Texas, was murdered at Boston, Texas, on the 7th instant.

M'CULLOCH VS. ROLLINS.

Mr. McCulloch has had another row with Commissioner Rollins over the new supervisorships. The former has appointed a Republican for Western Pennsylvania, and now declines to appoint Mr. Southworth for Eastern Pennsylvania, and Mr. Fulton for Maryland, because they are both Radicals.

ELECTIONS IN UNRECONSTRUCTED STATES.

Mr. Johnson has concluded not to advise elections in the unreconstructed States, as he thinks they may result in serious trouble, and doubts the assertions made by prominent Democrats that the electoral votes of these States would be counted.

WEST VIRGINIA ELECTION.

Latest returns to-day from West Virginia estimate the Republican majority at five thousand. Duvall, McGrew and Whitcher, Republicans, are certainly elected to Congress. The Legislature is about two-thirds Radical, as far as heard from.

FINANCIAL MATTERS.

The fractional currency printed this week amounted to $241,600; shipments, $472,354, including $50,000 to Cincinnati. The National Bank notes issued amounted to $69,980; amount in circulation $299,936,185. Fractional currency destroyed, $490,500.

GEN. HOWARD'S ANNUAL REPORT.

General Howard's annual report of the operations of the Freedmen's Bureau has been completed and transmitted to the Secretary of War.

MARTIAL LAW IN ARKANSAS AND LOUISIANA.

It is reported here that martial law will be proclaimed in Arkansas and Louisiana next month.

Registration — Notorious Desperadoes — Murder and Lynch Law.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, October 25.—Registration in this county has closed and the Boards of Review adjourned. The number of qualified voters on the list is 31,938, and the number rejected 697.

A letter from Larimie, Wyoming county, Tennessee, says that on the night of the 18th and morning of the 19th four notorious thieves and desperadoes were killed in that place by a Vigilance Committee and several others of less notoriety ordered to leave town.

Advices from Cooper county, Missouri, say that on the night of the 14th an old and respectable citizen named Mapes, living nine miles northwest from Otterville, was dragged from his bed and murdered.

On the following day, Mrs. Mapes and her brother, named McIntosh, Thomas Good and a boy named Bennett were arrested as implicated in the murder and placed in charge of a constable and a guard of ten men, to bo conveyed to Booneville. While en route to that place the guard was overpowered by a party of men and McIntosh and Good hung. Mrs. Mapes and the boy were then taken to jail.

Grand Republican Demonstration.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARTFORD, Conn., October 25.—A grand Mass Convention of Boys in Blue of this State will be held here on Wednesday next. A majority of the organizations in the State will participate, besides various delegations from Massachusetts and Rhode Island. There will be a torchlight procession in the evening and illumination and fireworks.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

Full Particulars of the Recent Earthquakes.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, October 24.—Details of the destruction of property in the interior of the State by the earthquakes on the 21st. are received. Alameda county suffers the most damage to property, extending in all directions back. At San Leandro there were numerous fissures in the earth, from some of which came clouds of dust, and from others volumes of water. San Leandro Creek, for some months dry, is now a running rapid stream of water. In some places hot water and steam gushed forth. The villages of San Leandro and Haywards are almost in ruins. Brick buildings were all thrown down, and numerous wooden structures considerasly damaged At Haywards only one building was uninjured, while Lamada, Brooklyn and Oakland, all suffered severely. The destruction of property at San Jose and Red Wood City was great.

At Sacramento, Stockton and Marysville the injury to buildings was slight and the loss small. Petaluma, Healthsburg, Santa Rosa, Vallejo and Martinez felt the full force of the shock. Chimneys and fire walls were thrown down. At Los Angelos and Visalia the shock was slight.

The earthquake was scarcely felt at San Francisco. A Committee of Architects appointed by the Board of Supervisors report the City Hall unsafe. The building will be taken down. Meanwhile the city officials and courts will find elsewhere another city building, not injured to any great extent, for temporary quarters. The damage to the school houses is trifling. The schools will open as usual on Monday next. The United States Marine Hospital building was condemned by the proper authorities, and will be demolished. The patients at present are encamped on the ground adjoining the hospital. The Custom House is wrecked to such an extent that it will probably not be occupied again.

More Earthquake Shocks—Wreck of the Steamer Del Norte.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—There has been several slight shocks of earthquake since midnight. One at 7:55 a. m., of considerable duration, caused some alarm.

The steamer Del Norte, while en route from Sitka to Victoria, was wrecked Oct. 21st, about fifty miles from the latter port. A heavy fog prevailed at the time. The sea was perfectly calm. The passengers and crew, and a large portion of the stores and cabin furniture was saved. The vessel is probably a total loss.

HAVANA.

Insurrectionary Movements—Operations of the Government Troops—Cubans and Spaniards ask the Privilege of Holding Public Meetings—The Captain General Refuses Their Demand—Troops sent to the Disturbed Districts.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, October 24.—The steamer Villa Clara arrived to-day from Manzanillo, bringing several prisoners. When the rain ceases, three columns of cavalry and infantry will leave Manzanillo to operate. A combination of these forces with those under Col. Lono, from Turas, will be formed, which will completely surround the insurrectionists in Manati. About a hundred and fifty insurrectionists attacked a gunboat which had just arrived at Manati. The gunboat responded to the insurrectionary fire and defeated them, causing them to retreat. Before the insurgents left Manati they committed some acts of vandalism in the town, which they burned. Capt. Gen. Lerzundi will hurry forward with reinforcements. Last night the police brought to this city from Cienfuegos as prisoners, Juan Gusman, a Dominician, and Languinda, a government official, who pretending to act as guides, led the troops into ambush. These prisoners are reported to be concerned in the murder of four generals of the army, who were made prisoners by the insurrectionists. This city is quiet and the citizens are a little uneasy at the alarming reports now circulating. Leisurdi has taken every precautionary measure to insure tranquility.

HAVANA, October 25.—A deputation of Cubans and Spaniards, about fifty in number, had an audience with Captain General Lersundi yesterday, and asked him to put in force the orders which they understood had been received from the home government, granting the privilege of holding public meetings. The Captain General said that no such orders had been received, but that whenever they were received from the authorities of Spain, he would comply with them. He added he was greatly astonished that they should make a demand for privileges at a time when the insurgents were devastating the country. He supposed they came to offer their services in the crisis, and concluded with the declaration that until relieved from his post, he should do everything in his power to maintain order on the Island.

A steamer from Madrid, due here on the 30th inst, is expected to bring out the decrees of the junta, establishing political reforms. All available troops in and around Havana have been sent to the disturbed districts, and the Captain Generals palace is now guarded by volunteers.

Fight with the Indians on Beaver Creek—The Savages Repulsed with a Loss of Nine Killed and Several Wounded.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FORT WALLACE, Oct. 24.—Companies H and I, Tenth Cavalry, one hundred and seventeen men and five officers, commanded by Lieut. Col. L. H. Carpenter, left this post on the 13th, for the purpose of escorting Major Gen. Carr to the Fifth Cavalry, seven companies of which are supposed to be on the Beaver. On the 18th, at a point about one hundred and fifteen miles northeast from Fort Wallace, on Beaver Creek, the force was attacked by about five hundred Indians. The fight began at 7 a. m. and continued till 3 p. m., when the savages withdrew, completely discomfited. Nine of their number are known to be killed, and a large number wounded, while only three of our men were wounded. A wounded Cheyenne Indian who spoke the Sioux language, informed one of our scouts that an Indian village of over eight hundred lodges, was on the Coleman, northwest from Hays. Capt. Hays had three bullets shot through his clothes. Col. Carpenter returned to Fort Wallace yesterday with his command, having traveled about two hundred and fifty miles in seven days.

Grand Republican Rally and Torchlight Procession.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

UTICA, October 25.—A grand rally of the Boys in Blue was held here last night, and a torchlight procession took place. While on the march the Boys in Blue were assaulted by rowdies with stones, brickbats and clubs. Six men in the procession were more or less severely injured. As the Rome delegation was about to take the cars for Rome, an attack was made upon it with clubs.

—It takes just two hours and twenty minutes to send a telegram from Boston to Smyrna.

—$40,000,000 worth of buildings have been or are being put up in Philadelphia this year.

—The Boston Traveller says Mr. Cunard has declined to restore the Boston line of steamers.

—General Sam Cary has actually enough spirit and cheek left to go on to Illinois to speak to workingmen.

—The King of Prussia gave Zouave Jacob a castle as fee for the cure he effected in a member of the Royal family.

—A candidate for election to the English Parliament, advocates the adoption of forcible means to put down war.

—Nillssen, the prima donna, paid $14,000 for a corner lot in Paris the other day. She intends some day to build a house on it.

—Bateman's French Opera Troupe, with Mademoiselle Irma as prima donna, will occupy the National Theatre in Cincinnati next week.

—Pinkerton the detective, came near having a case of his own to make up. A fellow tried to assassinate him the other day in Detroit.

—The Kellogg concerts are almost as much the rage as were those of Jenny Lind, years ago, in New York. $50 were paid for a good seat the other night.

—The New York Citizen sold for $75,000 which was a great deal considering how many New York citizens are bought for much less by the Democratic party.

—Vallandigham ran seventy votes behind his ticket in Butler county, Ohio, a fact which shows that there are seven comparatively sensible Democrats in that county.

—The body found in the Lake, near Fairport, Ohio, two or three weeks ago, has been recognized as that of Mrs. Garrett. It was supposed to be that of Miss Minnie Patchen.

—The steamboat owners and captains interested in the navigation of the Mississippi Valley are in convention in Cincinnati, with the intention of forming a protective union.

—Offenbach finding his popularity on the wane, has taken time by the forelock and contracted to furnish a theatre in Paris with three acts a year for five years at $10,000 per annum.

—Horrible London statistics show that every day there are seven children born in that city who from their residence in morally infected districts must inevitably lead a life of crime.

—The Venus di Medici has been measured again. Its height is five feet two inches, which is a good thing for vain short girls to remember. Its foot is exactly nine inches long, being a little more than one-seventh of the height.

—A solid block of Italian marble five feet high, seven feet one inch long, and three feet seven inches wide, with heavy mouldings at top and bottom and a rich, carved wreath of oak leaves, is the monument which is to be placed over the grave of Jas. Buchanan.

—A pious but hungry little boy, whilst in the midst of a bountiful repast, was recently astounded by a companion's remarking, "Charley, if you were to eat much more and it should kill you, you would weigh so much that the angels could not carry you to heaven."

—A boy attempting to crawl through a hole in which an iron shaft was revolving at the rate of one hundred and twenty times a minute, at Providence, R. I., recently, it caught his clothes and stripped them from his body. He clung to the shaft until the engine was stopped, and escaped unhurt. He was a fast boy.

—A German philosopher has found out that in five hundred million years the continents of Europe and America shall be submerged. Large ships should be built, or other means of preservation taken, for, though we ourselves can scarcely have a personal interest in the matter, we should always provide for posterity.

—Democrats now say that there are 15,000 Jews in this State who voted the Republican ticket in October, and will flop over and vote against "their persecutor, Grant." About 13,000 of these must have been colonists, as we hardly think there are more than 2,000 Jewish voters in the State, and hardly more than 15,000 Jewish voters in the whole country.

—Among the persons who recently received gold medals from the French Government, for deeds of great courage and devotedness, was a young matron, Francoise Triadou, who was bitten by a mad dog, in the midst of a crowd of children and women, and who was self-possesed and noble hearted enough to cling to the dog until he was killed. The furious animal would have bitten at least fifteen or twenty other persons. Madame Triadou was, fortunately, saved.

—The Marquis of Bute is described in the English peerage as Sir John Patrick Crichton Stuart, Earl of Windsor, Viscount Mountjoy, of the Isle of Wight; Baron Mont-Stuart, of Wortly, Baron Cardiff of Castle Cardiff; Earl of Dumfries, Viscount Ayr, Lord Criegton of Sanquhar and Cumnock; Earl of Bute, Viscount Kingarth, Lord Mount-Stuart, Cumra and Inchmarnock, a Baronet of Nova Scotia, Hereditary Sheriff and Coroner of the County of Bute, and Keeper of Rothsay Castle. We hope his Lordship will never get lost.

—Royalty is as curious as anybody else in the Sandwich Islands. The last number of the Honolulu Commercial Advertiser which we have received states that the new mail steamer Montana sailed for San Francisco the day before with a heavy list of freight and passengers, and a large crowd gathered on the quay to see her go. "Amongst others in the crowd we noticed His Majesty the King." The same paper, in speaking of the Cabinet, says that the Minister of Foreign Affairs is in Europe, "whence it is hoped he will not return," and the Minister of Finance is in Washington, and that the remaining two Ministers are doing the work of four, "and it is certain that one smart man could do the whole business, which by law devolves on four, with a saving of at least $15,000 a year to the public treasury."

The Green Vaults of Dresden.

The royal palace of Dresden is the most ungainly pile of heavy architecture in Europe. Yet it has great attractions to the lovers of art in the frescoes in the throne room by Bendermann, and in the ball room are some very fine paintings, the subjects principally from the mythology and lives of the ancient Greeks. On the ground floor is a range of apartments called the Green Vaults, from the color of the hangings with which the chambers were originally decorated. In these green vaults are such treasures of wealth that one feels in walking through them as if he only possessed the ring of Aladdin, and some slight mischance might cause the magnificent sight to be instantly dispelled. Before the discovery of America the Freiburg silver mines were the source of the great wealth of the Saxon Princes. Although the Saxon King is now the poorest in all Europe, in the very walls of his palace are treasures and costly objects more gorgeous and dazzling than any other monarch possesses, handed down from reign to reign since the time of Augustus the Strong, in 1724. There are exquisite carvings in the precious metals. One is an equestrian statue of Charles II. of England in the character of St. George, cut out of a piece of solid cast iron. In this same room the bronzes are of rare workmanship, one a crucifix by John of Bologna. In the ivory room are several wonderful pieces of carving. One is a cup carved out of a single piece of ivory only sixteen inches high, on which are 142 figures, illustrating the story of the Foolish Virgins, the Fall of Lucifer, and the wicked angels. Each face is a distinct portrait, and it is said to have taken several years to accomplish the work. In the third room are Florentine mosaics, objects in amber, paintings in enamel and engraved shells and ostrich eggs carved and ornamented with jewels and rare gildings. In the fourth room are the gold and silver plate that adorned the banqueting tables of the Saxon palace in the olden times. Each goblet and dish is a wonder of costliness and ingenious art. The fifth room glitters with vessels formed of the half-precious stones. Lapis Lazuli, chalcedony, agates and rock crystal, as well as two goblets formed of antique gems, each valued at $6,000. A most curious collection of caricature figures of men and animals made of single pearls are found in the sixth room. The largest pearl in the world, a pearl the size of a hen's egg, cut into the famous court dwarf of the King of Spain, is one of these royal toys. In the seventh are the suits of armor, studded with diamonds and gems of every description, some of the regalia being literally made of diamonds, rubies, emeralds, sapphires and pearls. In the last and eighth apartment are treasures that years of labor and mines of wealth furnished, the most splendid gifts for kings and princes. One trinket cost $58,400, and employed an artist eight years in making it. After all it is only a toy, representing the court of the Great Mogul, the Emperor Aurengzebe; seated on his throne, surrounded by his guards and courtiers, in the costumes described by Travernies, the expressions of each of the hundred and thirty-two figures in pure gold, enameled, being distinct and excellent. The tent, throne, steps, terraces of the ground are all gold, the whole standing on a pedestal thirty-two feet in diameter. Dinglinger, the court jeweler at Dresden, was the artisan, who employed twenty years in similar beautiful but useless work. In the room with these articles are displayed, such masses of diamonds, the largest in the world, the famous black diamond, the largest sardonyx known, six and a half inches long and four and a half broad, sapphires, the largest, a gift from Peter the Great; Martin Luther's two rings; a mass of solid silver from the Freiburg mines; and the Saxon Regalia, of which the buttons, collar, sword-hilt and scabbard are all of diamonds; the green diamond or brilliant, weighing 169 grains, is among them.

The only time when these treasures are used is when at the reception of ambassadors from foreign courts, the King, Queen, the two Princes and their Swedish and Portuguese wives, array themselves in jewels from head to foot, and glitter like the fairy queens who figured "years and years ago."

ADMIRAL FARRAGUT'S movements are beginning to attract the attention of the sensation paragraphists of Europe, and the Paris Epoque asserts that some of the great powers of Europe will soon ask an explanation of his intentions. Admiral Farragut, with a vessel suitable to his rank, has been visiting officially the squadrons stationed at the different ports with which commercial relations are maintained by the United States. This custom has been observed ever since the United States had a navy of any importance, and the different rulers of Europe are well aware that there is nothing unusual in the visits of Farragut, excepting in the honors which have everywhere been tendered to him by foreign Governments and people themselves on account of his great achievements as a naval officer in the recent war against the rebellion. These comments on American affairs, it will be observed, are always to be found in the journals of France, a country where remarks on the transactions of the home Government are strictly prohibited.

THE Immigration Convention in Baltimore concluded its sessions yesterday. It adopted measures for the union of the various emigrant societies of the country for the promotion of the interests of those coming under their jurisdiction, and a Constitution was framed for the new organization. Congress was also memoralized to pass laws for the better protection of immigrants. The first session of the new organization formed at the Convention, it is understood, is to be held in Philadelphia.

THE WELSH COLONY in Pategonia is suffering great anxiety from the anticipated loss of part of its resources. A small vessel lately purchased by the colonists, sailed from Pategonia in February last, and up to the end of July has not been heard of. She had on board sixty sacks of flour, a large fishing net, parcels of clothes, some cattle, and six persons.

Financial Matters in New York.

Gold Closed at 134¼@134⅜.

NEW YORK, October 24, 1868.

MONEY AND GOLD.

Money active and very firm at 7 per cent. in coin or 7 per cent. currency. Some banks, however, are doing all they can to relieve borrowers. The advance in Erie has created a feeling of distrust among money lenders, and 2,56 was the margin generally exacted, while in Erie it was thrown out in a great many cases. There was some talk this afternoon of a further locking upon of greenbacks on Monday.

Sterling quiet at 109½@109¾. Gold lower and opened at 135, and closed at 134¼@134¾. The Treasury awarded $300,000 at 34 85-100@14 85-100. One lot of a million sold early at gold board at 34 12-100.

BANK STATEMENT.

Loans, $2,611,579;033; decrease, $1,065,002; specie, $,553,583; increase, $366,963; circulation, $34,193,938; decrease, $19,980; deposits, $186,055,847; decrease, $2,827,739; legal tenders, $50,711,434; decrease, $1,915,423.

GOVERNMENTS.

Governments are steady; Coupons, of '81, 115¾@115¼; do. 62, 113¾@113½; do. '64, 111¾@111¾; do. '65, 111¾@111⅞; do. new, 110¼@110½; do. '67, 110½@110⅝; do. '68, 111@111½; 10-40s, 105¾@106.

BORDER STATE BONDS.

Border State Bonds quiet; old Tennessees, 69¾@70¼; new Tennessees, 69¾@70; new North Carolinas, 66½@67¼; old North Carolinas, 66½@67¼; new Virginias, 58@60.

STOCKS.

In the stock market the interest centers chiefly on Erie. The large sales started yesterday evening were continued this morning, the transactions at the two morning boards aggregating twenty-one thousand shares. The price opened at 42¼, declined for a moment to 39¾, and sold between the boards at 40¾, again advanced to 42¼, and closed at 39¼@39⅞. A panic has seized the market upon the stock, and in connection with money, the pressure has brought out large offerings. Among the reasons assigned are the following: That the Company was sending a large amount of money West to buy grain, and had leased the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad; also, that the managers have issued nine million dollars new stock, and intended to increase the amount to twenty million dollars, and the proceeds of all this stock was to be taken out of the street. The rest of the markets sympathized with the break in Erie, and were lower, closing weak and unsettled.

CLOSING PRICES, 5:30 P. M.: Canton, 49¼@49½; Cumberland, 34@35; Wells, Fargo & Co. Express, 30; American, 45¾@46¾; Adams, 50@51; United States, 48@49; Merchants Union, 22¾@22¾; Quicksilver, 23@24¼; Mariposa, 6¾@8¾; Mariposa preferred, 22½@22¾; Pacific Mail, 125½@126; Western Union Telegraph, 36@36¼; New York Central, 125¼@125⅞; Erie, 39¾@39¾; do. preferred, 69@70; Hudson, 137@137½; Reading, 97¼@97½; Ohio and Mississippi, 30¾@31; Wabash, 63@63¾; do. preferred, 77½@80; St. Paul, 102@102½; do. preferred, 103@103½; Michigan Central, 118@118½; Michigan Southern, 85¾@86; Illinois Central, 142; Pittsburgh, 87¾@88; Toledo, 102¾@103; Rock Island, 105¾@105¾; Northwestern, 883/@89¼; do. preferred, 89¾@90; Fort Wayne, 113@113¼; Hartford & Erie, 25; Chicago & Alton, 155½; Terre Haute, 41½; Lake Shore, 100¾; St. Joseph preferred, 89½; Sioux City preferred, 94.

Rivers and Weather.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

LOUISVILLE, October 24.—The river is stationary, with three feet nine inches in the canal by mark. The weather is clear and warm.

RIVER NEWS.

It commenced to rain about noon yesterday, and we are in hopes that it will continue long enough to bring about a good rise in our rivers. The river is now as low almost as it wrs at anytime during last summer.

The old Ida Rees is being fixed up for Trinty river, Texas, where she will engage in carrying cotton.

—The Tom Farrow was to have left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Friday to load her barges with iron ore.

—Captain Chas. Powers, of New Albany, sold his interest in the W. F. Curtis on Thursday, to Captain Brown, of Marietta, for real estate in that city.

—The America arrived at Cincinnati from St. Louis on Thursday, having among other items of freight, 800 sacks of grain. She loads there at once for New Orleans.

—The Economist left Cincinnati for Arkansas river on Thursday evening. She laid at Cincinnati about a week, during which time she received fifty tons of freight.

—Capt. James McCord, a veteran boatman and agent, has been elected Secretary of the St. Louis Captains' and Marine Charitable Association, being selected for his well-known aptitude for the business.

—The Rob Roy has been sold by Captain Pres. Lodwick to Captain James Kane and others, for $8,500. She is now loading at Cincinnati for New Orleans, and will, on her arrival there, enter the Ouachita river trade.

—The Vicksburg merchants and the New Orleans packets are quarreling over rates of freight on cotton. Outside boats carry for $1 per bale, while packets ask $1,50. The packets stay with them the year round—build up the town, and have lost money the past season, but the Vicksburgers, like the merchants of Memphis, try to kill the goose that lays the golden eggs.

—The explosion of the old steamer Dubuque on the 18th of August, 1857, eleven miles below Muscatine, will be remembered by many. The fact has been called to mind by an article in the Journal, of a late date. It says that workmen engaged in excavating on the site of the school house being built at that place, have struck into the remains of the victims of the explosion of the old steamer Dubuque. Twenty-two lives were lost, all deck passengers.

—The New Albany Ledger says: The Congressional Excursion Committee'r petition, asking the city of New Albany to contribute $1,500 to their fund, was read in the Council last night and referred to the Finance Committee. It is likely to remain referred for some time to come. It was a stunner—the petition we mean—but it is hard to extract blood from the esculent vulgarly known as a turnip. The turn the Committee took upon it is likely to nip it in the bud.

—A Memphis telegram under date of Saturday says: The steamer Cora S. Capt. Yerkes, bound from Little Rock to Cincinnati, with a cargo of two hundred and fifty bales of cotton, and other freight, struck a snag at Oakley's bend, in Arkansas River, Tuesday night, and sunk in six feet water. She was owned by her commander and clerk, and valued at ten thousand dollars. She was insured for eight thousand dollars in Cincinnati office. The W. A. Caldwell brought her passengers to this point.

—The Committee appointed a short time ago by the St. Louis Board of Trade, to prepare propositions to be presented, for discussion, to the National Board of Trade, at its meeting in Cincinnati on the 2d of December, reported on Friday in favor of declaring the cities of St. Louis, Cincinnati and Chicago ports of entry, under such restrictions and regulations only as shall protect the government against fraud. The Committee also reported in favor of the removal by the general government of all obstructions to the navigation of the Mississippi river and its navigable tributaries, and to recommend to all municipal authorities located thereon such modification and reduction of local charges as shall render the commerce of said river as free as possible.

"SEYMOUR AND BLAIR WILL GIVE US ALL THE CONFEDERACY FOUGHT FOR."—Ex-Rebel Gov. Vance's speech at the Democratic Ratification Meeting in Richmond.

Gold closed in New York on Saturday at 134⅜.

MANY of the best Republican orators of Pennsylvania are now actively engaged in the Presidential canvass in New York, New Jersey and Delaware.

THE COURTS of Chicago have decided that a man and woman cohabiting are husband and wife, provided they are recognized as such in the circle in which they move.

JUDGE JOHN A. CARY, of Chemung, the leading and most influential Democrat of that town, has renounced the support of SEYMOUR and BLAIR, and proclaimed himself an adherent of GRANT and COLFAX.

ON WEDNESDAY EVENING next Mr. HORATIO SEYMOUR will address the people of Pittsburgh and the adjacent municipalities. We cannot think of a spot where his labors would benefit his party less than here.

THERE seems to be no lack of material from which to choose a Republican United States Senator in place of Mr. BUCKALEW. Already have been mentioned the names of THOMAS M. MARSHALL and JAMES K. MOORHEAD of Pittsburgh, BENJAMIN H. BREWSTER and WM. H. KEMBLE of Philadelphia, GALUSHA A. GROW of Susquehanna, and GLENNI W. SCHOFIELD of Warren. Still other names will probably be suggested within a few days.

THE Post seems to have savage designs upon the pockets of its followers. Not content with depleting them largely by vaunts that the Republican majority in Maine was much reduced at the late election, on Saturday it laid them open to fresh sacrifices by claiming that the Democrats had carried West Virginia. We have no sympathy to expend in such cases. Whoever will follow blind or perverse guides, must expect to fall into the ditch.

THE rebel element in the Southern States is giving significant intimations, in multiplied murders, assassinations, arsons, and other barbarities, of what might reasonably be expected of it, on a greatly expanded scale, provided SEYMOUR and BLAIR should be elected. It is full time the strong hand of authority was laid on these miscreants. To be forced to wait till the fourth of next March is a heavy tax upon patience, but there is no hope of efficient action before that time.

THE OFFICIAL RETURNS of the recent election in this State, given elsewhere, make the total number of votes polled 652,449. In 1867 the total number was 534,507; in 1866, 597,370; and in 1864, 572,706. The increase this year over 1867 is 117,952; over 1866, 93,039; and over 1864, 79,522.

Making no deductions for fraudulent votes, the number of votes polled this year indicates a population of 4,660,000 souls; an increase of 1,750,060 in eight years. Making whatever abatements may be needful to balance the frauds committed, the increase of inhabitants, under all the circumstances, is a matter for earnest congratulations.

LIKE THAT OTHER exhumed fossil SEYMOUR, Mr. ANDREW JOHNSON now comes forward at the last moment to push the financial dodge in the interests of the sinking Democracy. It is ludicrously absurd to hear these twin Dromios prosing through the same old stories about Radical usurpation and profligacy and ringing the thousand times repeated changes upon themes, which have been handled and exhausted by all the cross-roads politicians for four months past. The venerable old fogies begin back at the deluge and go over the whole story as if it were a new one, narrating events, distorting facts and airing the exploded objections with which five millions of voters were entirely familiar long ago. Will neither of them astonish the people with something new and worthy of refutation?

A PLEA FOR JUSTICE.

The people demand that a great wrong shall be remedied—that a great crime shall be promptly punished. It is not vengeance which they desire; they demand such a visitation upon the offenders as shall supply to their rights a future security ample for their protection from any repetition of the same crimes by the same persons, and as shall deter others therefrom, by the effectual warning of an example impartially and sternly made. Shall this demand be made in vain? Let us look at the facts and see whether the relief is not due.

The Prothonotary of the Supreme Court for the Eastern District of this Commonwealth has been proven to be guilty of a clear dereliction of duty. He has, permissively, delegated to irresponsible and obscure subordinates certain duties palpably and peculiarly his own. He has been proven to be an unsafe and incompetent custodian of the most important charge belonging to his office—the seal, which comprehends and expresses all the powers of the Court, and is the only legally authentic expression of its decrees. He has, after a full knowledge of the evasions and violations of the law resulting from his misuse of his official trusts, permitted their continuance, against the protests of the people and regardless of admonitions from his official superiors. These derelictions of duty, inexcusably grave in themselves, and made still more indefensible by the subsequent persistance, have necessarily resulted, as do all flagrant abuses of official trust, in scandalous encroachments upon the public rights, and upon the peace and good order of the community. These derilections have been such, in their nature and in the attendant circumstances, as not only to suggest, but to warrant no other belief than that they have been manifested in a partizan interest, and for purely partizan purposes. Enuring exclusively to the apparent advantage of one political party, all protests against their continuance, and all demands for their punishment, have been treated as the mere partizan outcry of an opposition, and not as the justly indignant voice of an outraged people, and the guilty offender remains to-day, seemingly confident in the ample merits of a lame and stumbling defense, which was no other defense than a mere partizan denunciation of the call for redress.

It is a crime which has been charged against the confidential officer of our highest judicial tribunal—a crime against the sovereignty of the people, because it has attacked the only legal method by which that sovereignty has expression—a crime against the purity, the dignity and the authority of the Court itself, since it has sullied the first, degraded the second and impaired the last—a crime against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth, because its results have directly broken the one and dishonored the other—a crime against public decency and against the authority of all law, because it has impaired the popular confidence in the sanctity of legal authority and in the integrity of the tribunals appointed to expound all law with equal justice to all.

The monstrous abuses charged and proven upon the office of the Prothonotary at Philadelphia were instantly the direct cause of violence, popular commotion and murder. Upon the head of that officer, whose first offence opened wide the door for a series of shameful frauds, may justly be laid all the blood-guiltiness which followed. Let his conscience answer at another bar, for the souls sent untimely to their account, in those commotions which were results directly chargeable upon his invasion of the lawful rights of his fellow citizens! The blood of citizens, murdered that the wrongs which he inaugurated might be complete, will come up for judgment upon the original offender, before a Tribunal which seeth and knoweth all things, and which errs not in Its visitations upon the first guilty cause.

But it is for us to deal with the offender against human laws. Shall these laws be broken with impunity? Is there any penalty for the past breach? Any remedy against its future repetition? We do not hesitate to declare that such remedy exists, in the prompt removal of the offender from a trust of which he has been found unworthy. The people are entitled to this, which promises their only security for the future. The just punishment of the past offences must, we fear, be remitted to other tribunals than those of this Commonwealth. Our own judges can reach and remedy the abuses of their own functions and powers by their subordinates, but they are powerless to punish the offences against the Federal law. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania can expel from its precincts the officer who has prostituted its highest prerogative, in making unlawful merchandise, within its own temple, of its own peculiar seal of authority, but it has no power to hear and pronounce upon a criminal issue under the laws of another sovereignty. The offending Prothonotary is responsible to both sovereignties, but under different proceedings, the judgment of the one having no relation to the offence against the other. Prothonotary SNOWDEN must answer to the Federal Court, if at all, on the charge that he has violated the Federal law. Our own Supreme Court, whose officer he is, must deal with him for the kindred but distinct offence of prostituting that office, with its custody of the highest judicial seal of the Commonwealth, to unlawful and scandalous uses. The responsibilities of the offender, thus doubled, do not conflict, and the judgment of neither Court impairs the functions or limits the remedies of the other. Nor does either Court, State or Federal, depend upon an adjudication in the other, for its clear title to its own unimpaired exercise of its own peculiar functions.

The Supreme Court Prothonotary is appointed under our Constitution, "by the Court, for the term of three years, if he shall so long behave himself well." He "shall be removed on conviction of misbehavior in office." He "shall have the custody of the records and seal of the Court;" "shall keep the same in the apartments provided by law for that purpose, and he shall faithfully perform, under the direction of the Court, all the duties appertaining to his office." By the 21st and 33d sections of the Practice Act, the Court has the power to establish such rules and forms of proceeding, for expediting the determination of proceedings therein "as in their discretion they shall judge necessary or proper, provided such rules be not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of this Commonwealth." The 19th section of the same act gives to the Court the power —"to examine and correct all and all manner of error of the Justices, Magistrates and Courts of the Commonwealth, in the process, proceedings, judgments and decree, as well in criminal as in civil pleas or proceedings, and thereupon to reverse, modify or affirm such judgments and decrees or proceedings, as the law doth or shall direct: and generally, to minister justice to all persons, in all matters whatsoever, as full and amply, to all intents and purposes, as the said Court has heretofore had power to do, under the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth."

We thus see that the Supreme Court has ample power conferred upon it, for the revision and correction of all manner of errors, in all proceedings whatever, ministering the fullest justice to all persons. Beyond and above this specific grant of authority is the essential prerogative, in all courts of justice, of the control and supervision of their own subordinate officials. We repeat that it is essential, and we appeal, in that respect, to the uniform practice of all tribunals of justice, in all Christian lands, from the Middle Ages down to this day. The common consent of enlightened nations has invested every court with this power, as one essential to the exercise of its other functions. But a doubt is suggested to us from a quarter for which we have a profound respect. We are pointed to the 14th section of the Constitution, and to the 6th section of the Bill of Rights, and told that a Prothonotary misbehaving in office may demand to be convicted of his offence by a jury before he shall be removed. But the IXth section also says that he shall hold his office for its full term "only on the condition" of good behavior, and "shall be removed on conviction of misbehavior or for any infamous crime." If Mr. SNOWDEN is to retain his office until convicted of misbehavior, and if, as is conceded by the best lawyers, that conviction, being against Federal law, must be first had in a Federal Court, the result follows that the highest tribunal of this State is powerless to deal with flagrant and pernicious abuses committed by its own officials, except by the aid of another tribunal foreign in that particular to our laws. Our State Court is helpless, until its authority shall be supplemented by, pro hac vice, a foreign jurisdiction. Its offending subordinate, responsible only to a foreign authority, may snap his fingers at the Court whose servant he is, until it suits foreign officials to try and convict him. No, this won't do; it is too far from common sense to be very near the law.

So, of the remedy by impeachment before the Legislature. This suggestion is liable to the fatal objection that, as a remedy, it must be practically a failure, because it does not reach the offence or its perpetrator with the summary promptitude which, in the service of the Courts, is the next essential to a pure impartiality. That a Prothonotary may be also impeached, leaves the argument ex necessitate as to the powers of the Court itself unimpaired. The impeachment may be needful in cases where Judges shall corruptly or weakly wink at the derelictions of their officers, but this possible resort is quite consistent with the fullest authority of the Judges in the premises, while it presents to them no justification for a failure to vindicate their peculiar dignity within their own prerogatives.

The question is, rather, has the authority over its own officers, which is essential to any Court, been taken away from our Supreme Court by any existing limitations? And here we confidently challenge any proof to be produced, from our Constitution or laws, which can be justly and reasonably held to override that authority ex-necessitate, which inherently rests in the Judicial prerogative. It may deal with its Clerks as with its attornies; they are equally its officers and equally amenable to its supervisory discretion in their discharge of their respective functions. Either may be suspended, or removed from office for incompetency or misbehavior. A rule to show cause, with its subsequent due hearing by the Court itself, lies properly against either. The attorney may claim a jury trial and conviction as justly as can the Clerk, and yet no lawyer doubts his own amenability to the summary process of his Court, for official derelictions. What necessity thus applies to the attorney, will attach with increased force to the other officer, whose functions are yet more confidential and whose constant amenability "to the direction of the Court," is still more imperatively and indeed expressly demanded. We need not pursue this discussion.

We might refer to the unquestionable power of the Judges to suspend a Clerk temporarily incapacitated by insanity or otherwise, say, in custody charged with an offence not bailable, of which his innocence shall be eventually established. All the profession could agree upon that right, and not many of them will incline to deny that the power for such suspension implies the fullest powers for which we argue. But we forbear.

What we have said has been at the dictate of common-sense. We leave the nicetics of the law to the profession, but we yield to none of its learned members the right, the duty, of the journalist to handle this particular question from the popular stand-point. If the law be so absurdly construed as to leave the highest Court of the Commonwealth naked to its enemies, and powerless for its great duty of ministering justice without delay to all, until supplemented by the caprices or the peculiar authority of tribunals foreign in that regard to our own laws, it is high time for us all to find it out. If, on the other hand, the essential prerogatives of our Courts of Justice, over the ministering service of their own temples, remain as interpreted by the common consent of all Christian peoples, and unimpaired by any just construction of our own constitutional and statutory restrictions, it is high time for those prerogatives to be vindicated, in the presence of the shameful wrongs which have been committed in the august name of Justice.

WEST VIRGINIA.

The Republican triumph in West Virginia has this peculiarity about it, that it is the first real Republican triumph in that young State.

The elections here, since the war broke out, have nominally gone against the rebel Democracy, it is true; but there was, from 1861 to 1867, a half-heartedness about her leading politicians which hindered their being classed as Republicans. WILLEY, CARLISLE and VAN WINKLE, in the Senate, and her members in the House, voted with the Republicans to sustain the war, but on all other party questions they voted as often against as with them. They could never be relied on as party men.

Last year, in order to save themselves from being swamped by the votes of returned Rebels, they were compelled to adopt an amendment to their State Constitution disfranchising all who had taken part in the Rebellion. The adoption of this amendment has drawn party lines anew, and much more distinctly than ever before; and, for the first time in the history of the State, we find the ruling party this year taking clear, decisive, unquestionable Republican ground.

The result is seen in the selection of a Governor, whose Republicanism dates back to 1856, three members of Congress, who will hereafter act in harmony with the Republicans of the Union, and a Legislature that will elect a United States Senator in place of VAN WINKLE, who will not need to be set up with o' nights and prayed over to get him to vote right.

This, then, is a substantial victory, and the three members of Congress and U. S. Senator are, practically, gains. We get something where before we had nothing, except in name, and the rebel Democracy of that end of old Virginia lose all that they have heretofore enjoyed in the partial assistance given them in Congress by the occasional votes of the West Virginia members.

It is not possible for the Union majority of last week to be under 4,000.

SEYMOUR'S DODGE REPUDIATED.

The attempt of HORATIO SEYMOUR to obscure the real position of FRANK BLAIR, and the plain meaning of the New York platform, is repudiated by BRICK POMEROY, in his New York Democrat. Read what he says, in connection with SEYMOUR'S artful dodges upon the stump, and you will see that red-hot Democrats won't stand any nonsense on this point. Says the Democrat:

"The Democratic party stands by Blair as much as Seymour, and by the platform as fully as by the candidates. Assailing one candidate on the ticket, and professing friendship to the other, is equally injurious to both, as it is obviously intended to be, and can be regarded only as a cover to treason. In regard to Gen. Blair's Brodhead letter, we have a few words to say. We stand square up to it as does every Democrat. It is cowardice and treason to try to dodge the just and manly issue which it makes. It took better with the Democratic masses than any part of the platform, save the financial planks. The people admire boldness and thoroughness. This was both bold and thorough.

"The Convention admired them, too. That letter secured General Blair the nomination. The substance of it was embodied in the platform in the declaration that the Reconstruction acts are unconstitutional, revolutionary and void. Here is the deliberate, authoritative position taken by the Democratic party. We can not change it if we would, and we ought not if we could. If there had been no cowardice and backing down from the financial planks they would have also been carried triumphantly through the canvass. If beaten now it will be the fault of cowards, knaves and traitors who have surrendered our position in enmity against the candidates."

"THE LEGISLATIVE catalogue printed by us yesterday, showed, in the House of Representatives, thirty-nine Democrats and sixty-one Radicals, giving a majority to the latter of twenty-three. Nothing can more clearly show the unfairness of an apportionment bill than its thus giving a twenty-two per cent. majority of representatives on a Radical majority of the aggregate vote of the State, of about one and a-half per cent."—Post.

Doubtless Mr. W. A. WALLACE'S chances of getting into the United States Senate, as the successor of Mr. BUCKALEW, are about as bad as his sturdiest opponent could desire; and if blame is fairly imputable in consequence, it must fall upon Republicans, who did not vote to suit his aspirations.

When men are defeated they are not apt to confess that the fault is with themselves; but are prone to cast about for excuses to ease their humiliation. As this course seems to be natural, we do not blame our contemporary for adopting it.

When the canvass opened the Democrats aimed to carry this State. As it progressed they felt that the frauds they had laid the foundations for were sufficient to ensure them the desire of their hearts. Beyond this general result, they took special pains to colonize the close congressional and legislative districts, having an abundance of of complying materials with which to operate. The slums and stews of New York, Baltimore and other large towns eagerly offered contributions. Half the population of rebeldom rejoiced in an opportunity to invade the ballot-boxes of Pennsylvania, and only demanded that transportation with food and lodgings should be provided. After all, the inexorable returns do not conform to the expectations exited. Consequently the Post is given up to repinings, which is about as harmless a way of wearing off its grief as can well be devised.

THE NEW BRIGHTON DEMONSTRATION.

Beaver county has always been prompt in aiding our political friends here in their parades and demonstrations, sending forth large delegations of equipped men to join in the ranks, and help swell the loyal throng. Our people are now asked to reciprocate the compliment by participating in a grand torchlight demonstration to be held at New Brighton to-morrow night. Let old Allegheny be largely represented in our sister county on the occasion, and help on the cause of GRANT and COLFAX.

Destruction of Eight Tenement Houses by Fire.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, October 25.—A fire in Union Point, in the suburbs of this city, last night, destroyed eight tenement houses, leaving some ten families, all laboring people, houseless. The fire was caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp.

THE XXIST DISTRICT.

Our virtuous and law-abiding Democratic leaders are indignant at the refusal of the Governor to ratify their rascally proceedings in the XXIst District of the State. But Governor GEARY is abundantly sustained by the facts which have come to light, showing an utter disregard of the plainest provisions of the laws, by friends of the Democratic candidates. We copy one chapter of this expose from last week's Uniontown Standard, which, alone, fully substantiates the right of the people to be represented by Mr. COVODE, as their choice by a legal majority. The Standard says:

The election in Dunbar township, in this county, was a farce or worse. In 1867 it polled 453 votes. This year it polled 640, an increase over last year of 187. In 1867, the Republicans polled 186 votes. In 1868, they polled 202—increase 16.

The tickets, up to ten o'clock election day, were thrown into hats, and afterwards removed to the boxes. John R. Smith, a Democrat, says that he had a segar box full of Copperhead tickets folded, and left them in the election room. What become of them he does not know. Upon counting the ballots, six more were found in the boxes than there were names on the tally paper. The boxes being sealed, they were delivered to the constable of the township, instead of being conveyed by one of the election officers to the nearest Justice of the Peace.

A large majority of the additional Copperhead voters were, no doubt, imported. Officers on the cars between this place and Pittsburgh, kept us advised every day of passengers from Pittsburgh getting off at Dunbar. One of the officers of the board was not sworn.

The Youngstown District, in Westmoreland county, contains the Catholic Monastery of Xavier. Its inmates are nearly, if not all, foreigners. Few of them had naturalization papers. But all voted. No challenges were permitted. A person attempting it was silenced and told if he persisted, he should be arrested. The boxes were literally crammed, without even form or fear of law.

Dunbar township is not the only one in this county where fraud was apparent. In North Union township there were six more ballots in the boxes than names on the tally papers. There were also four more in Georges and four at Brownsville. These latter the officers threw out—two Republican and two Copperhead tickets.

Looking over the whole canvass, the opinion is forced upon us that the Copperheads intended to carry the district at every hazard of force and fraud, expecting to carry the Presidency, and crush out all resistance or inquiry.

That Foster will be kicked out of Congress, we doubt not. It would otherwise be an outrage on the people, and make election a farce, or worse, a scene of terrorism and bloodshed, as at Philadelphia.

"As we have published heretofore, there is no longer any disguise or doubt of the intention of the Radicals to force negro suffrage upon all the States. They claim the authority to do so under the bogus Fourteenth Amendment. And, if they carry the November election, this mixture of poison in the elective element will be accomplished by the present Congress; and then the degradation of the suffrage will be complete.—Post.

The Fourteenth Constitutional Amendment neither authorizes black men to vote in any of the States nor gives power to Congress to confer on them the right of suffrage. The Post can at least read, and knows that this is the literal truth.

But, the Fourteenth Amendment provides that so long as black men shall be deprived of the right to vote for themselves, white men shrll not have the impudence to vote for them. What the Democrats want is to be constituted attornies in fact for the blacks, without their consent, in the matter of voting. That is precisely the relation which aristocrats in Great Britain have contrived to sustain to most of the white laboring men of that kingdom As the so-called Democrats are afraid as yet to try this game upon white laborers here, and are not willing to abandon it altogether, they think it safest to begin on the blacks, hoping to enlarge their sphere of operations by and by.

TO THE VIGILANCE COMMITTEES OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

But one more week remains for active effort before the Presidential election, and that week should be devoted to work. The time for effecting much good by meetings and displays has nearly passed away; and the few days that are left should be employed by our local Committees in a close attention to their respective districts.

Our October election demonstrated what can be accomplished by faithful committee work. No county was ever before so well canvassed, by local committees, and no work was ever better rewarded by the result. The Vigilance Committees of the several districts of this county did a work, then, which has extorted the praise of even their political enemies.

What was so well done, then, must not be neglected, now. The victory of October 13th must not be permitted to eclipse that of November 3d. A continuance of the same efforts will be followed by an increased majority, and nothing but a continuance of them will bring that increase.

What is needed, now, is an immediate assemblage of the local committees in each election district, and such an apportionment of the labor to each member as will give to each what each can best do. The lists of voters need revising; those who did not vote at the last election need attending to; and, generally, such measures need adoption as will secure the attendance of every Republican at the polls on the 3d of November.

Challengers need to be appointed to see that no illegal votes are polled; watchers, to see that no fraud is attempted or carried on; ticket-men, to attend the tables on election day; tally-men, to check off the names of citizens, as they vote; and men to hunt up and bring out the tardy voters. The committee of each district knows best, from its own experience, how all this is to be done.

Our success at the October elections may have induced some of our friends to believe that all this vigilance and energy, and attention to detail, are unnecessary; but nothing could be farther from the fact. Even if GRANT could be elected without them, we owe it to him and the cause he represents to give him something more than mere success. We want to give him an overwhelming victory—a victory so complete, thorough and decisive as forever to settle the questions at issue, and this can be done only by a patient perseverance in work and adherence to organization.

FRIENDS! we need make no appeal to you. You know, as well as any one can tell you, what is at stake, and how much depends on your efforts. We have all confidence in your fidelity, patriotism and zeal; and resting in perfect security on what you have already accomplished, shall continue assured that you will redeem all the large promises made in your behalf.

By order of Republican County Committee.
RUSSELL ERRETT, Chairman.
JOHN H. STEWART, Secretary.

A SLIGHT COLD, COUGH,

OR SORE THROAT may be checked if a reliable remedy is applied at once, but if neglected very soon preys upon the lungs, and the result may prove fatal. The past few weeks of changeable temperature and cold rains are fruitful sources of troubles of the lungs, throat and chest. If you are attacked by a cold, no matter how slight, use at once

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP,

Which is an old and well tried remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, and all Affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

DR SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Is entirely free from any deleterious ingredient, and can be given with perfect safety to the youngest child.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Gives sure and almost immediate relief to hoarseness and that annoying sensation, tickling, in the throat. If you would obtain a reliable remedy, be sure and call for

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP.

If your Druggist does not keep it, ask him to get it for you.

COUNSEL FOR THE CARELESS.

The body is a machine, and carelessness in its management is as sure to lead to evil results as carelessness in the management of a steam engine. Yet the last thing that most people think of is the protection of this delicate piece of the Creator's handiwork from the subtle causes of disease by which it is surrounded. It is no easy thing to repair the system when in ruins; but there is no difficulty in fortifying it against many of the dangers to which it is exposed. Guard against nervous debility. At the first symptom of this fore-runner of more serious ailments, sustain the flagging energies of nature with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Take it regularly and persistently, until bodily vigor is thoroughly restored. It creates an appetite, promotes—or, it might as properly be said compels—the complete digestion of the food, regulates the secretive action of the liver, tones and invigorates the bowels, improves the condition of the blood, and gives firmness to the nerves. Upon a system thus strengthened and regulated in all its important functions, the fogs and exhalations of autumn, pregnant with the elements of intermittent fever, can make little or no impression. Whoever supposes that fever and ague is an unavoidable evil in certain districts, at this season of the year, is egregiously mistaken. As effectually as a draught of cold air is shut out by the closing of a door, this complaint, and all disorders of a miasmatic type, may be prevented by the use of the BITTERS. When sickness can be avoided by a means so safe and simple, is it not the merest fatuity to neglect the proffered antidote? Regarded either as a preventive or a cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, intermittent fever, nervous disorders, general debility, or constipation of the bowels, this pure vegetable preparation stands alone.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs, the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is enriched by some of the most valuable plants and herbs known to be useful and curative in all deteriorated states of the human blood, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid surely fatal. Let any one afflicted with any pulmonary disease try but one bottle, and they will be convinced of the value of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at Dr. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 140 Wood St.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or its General Agents.

☞ GENERAL AGENTS ARE WANTED in every City and Town; and applications from competent parties for such agencies with suitable endorsement, should be addressed to THE COMPANY'S GENERAL AGENTS ONLY, in their respective districts.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, October 24, 1868.

Gold was weak and dull to-day at 134¾ to 134⅞, with a declining tendency. The Government, having been a seller during all the week, and from the small amount of currency in the Treasury, it is inferred that further sales of gold have to be made to meet the demands. A further cause for the decline is the tightness of the money market, which is not due alone to artificial stringency, but to the unusual demand for money by speculators in western produce, cotton, tobacco, &c. The shrinkage in value of nearly all merchandise, stocks or other investments by the decline in the premium on gold during the last sixty days, amounting now to 15 per cent., has caused a total stagnation of business, and has tended to withhold money from free circulation, as it would do in prosperous times. Wall street is blamed as the cause of this condition of affairs, but the doings there have only aggravated matters, which, if left to the natural course, would come to the same point, only in a greater space of time.

The long predicted rise in government securities is still expected, but it is doubtful now whether any advance will take place. The market for bonds in Europe has not responded to the decline of gold here, nor is there any special desire to buy for investment here. The demand for bonds will be fully supplied from sellers who have to use the money in business, and capitalists can get a better interest for their money by disposing of their bonds at present prices and deduct 12 per cent. on their money invested in discounts.

As for stocks, a heavy decline must ultimately take place, although for the present, and especially before the middle of next month it might be dangerous to speculate on the bear side. Fort Wayne is lower; also, Cleveland & Pittsburgh; the North Western shares and the New York Central, Ohio and Mississippi is strongly held by the western speculators who bought largely at 132 to 132½. Erie is dull, and likely to decline more; but few of the old holders have any confidence in present prices, but when this stock is pressed down to 25, these men can well afford to buy it in, having sold out at 48 to 50, their new purchase will cost them nothing at all. The greatest danger for the bull operators in stocks now comes from the produce speculators, who are likely to suffer much from the scarcity of money and the high rates of interest; their calculations were made on cheap money and good prices of grain and cotton, but the decline in gold has upset all their theories, and they will be the losers.

Business is exceedingly dull in a retail way, though wholesale houses still talk of a fair average business.

Local securities are not much in demand.

Mertz: Gold, 134¾; United States 1881s, 115¾; Five Twenties, '62, 113⅝ do '64s, 111⅝; do '65s, 111¾; do new, 110¾; do; '67s, 110⅜; do '68s, 110⅝; Ten-Forties, 105¾; Silver, 126; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 30¾; Western Union Telegraph, 36¼; New York Central, 264; Erie, 40¼; Reading, 97½; Michigan Southern, 85½; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 87¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 105¼; Northern Western 88¼; do Preferred, 89½; Fort Wayne & Chicago, 113½; Merchants Union Express, 22½; Adams, 50; Pacific Mail, 26½; Quicksilver, 23¾.

—Says the Chicago Tribune, of Saturday, says: There was a good attendance on 'Change to-day, but a less amount of business transacted, and at lower prices. The increasing stringency of the money market forced a great deal of grain on the market, and made buyers not over anxious to purchase. Lower prices were a necessity of such a situation, especially as there was no encouragement from other cities, except in corn, from New York, and that was looked on as a spasmodic activity, something like that controlling the market here for the past two or three days.

—Some heavy failures have occurred lately among the grain buyers of St. Louis. Alex. H. Smith, one of the heaviest millers, has obtained an extension of three years. His failure is said to be occasioned by steamboat operations. C. L. Tucker, miller, is also reported in the list. He was formerly President of the Chamber of Commerce.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, October 24, 1868.

The general markets have been more active during the past week, the volume of business in the aggregate being larger than for some weeks preceding, although there is still room for improvement. The most noticeable feature we have to notice is the remarkable decline in Wheat and Flour, in Chicago, both of these articles having gone lower than the most sanguine "bear" expected. The fact is, almost everything is depreciating in value, but the depreciation in Wheat and Flour is greater than almost anything else.

APPLES—In good supply, and dull but unchanged; sales in a regular way, at $2,50 to $3,50 per bbl, for fair to choice.

APPLE BUTTER—Is quiet and unchanged; sales in kegs at 75 to 85, and in crocks at 85 to 90.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—In better supply but unchanged; sales at $5,50 to $6,00 per cwt.

BUTTER—Is in rather better demand though unchanged; sales at 33 to 35 for packed, and 38 to 40 for prime Roll.

EGGS—Scarce and in demand, and fresh packed may be quoted firm at 28—some dealers asking 30.

CHESTNUTS—Steady at $6 per bushel.

CRANBERRIES—Supply very light and prime eastern cultivated may be quoted at $16 to $17 per bbl.

CIDER—Is quoted at $5 to $7 per bbl, according to quality and size of barrel.

HAY—Wagon Hay is still quoted at $28 to $38. Baled Hay is in fair demand, and we can report sales of prime at $28 to $30 per ton.

GRAIN—Wheat is dull, and prices are entirely nominal; buyers are scarce, and, in the absence of sales, we quote Winter at $1,90 to $1,95. Corn is a little easier, and we now quote at $1,13 to $1,14 for prime Yellow, and $1,10 to $1,12 for mixed. New Corn is nominal at 85 to 90c. Barley is coming in more freely, and the market is a shade easier; we now quote at $2,20 to $2,25 for State Spring, and $2,33 to $2,35 for do Fall. We heard of an offer of $2,27½ having been made the other day for 10,000 bushels of prime Ohio Spring, but it was held at $2,30. Oats unchanged at 65 to 66c, on track, and 69 to 70c, in store. Rye is in steady demand at $1,48 to $1,50.

TALLOW—Prime rendered, in hhds or casks, is in steady demand at 12½.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet, and prices are unchanged at 13½ for shoulders; 16 to 18c for Ribbed and Clear Sides; and 20 for Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard 20c. Mess Pork $30,50 to $31.

LARD OIL—Is firm but unchanged at $1,25 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

POTATOES—Sales of prime Peach Blows at 95c to $1 per bushel. Sweets are quoted at $4,75 to $5,00 for Baltimores, and $5,50 to $5,75 for Jerseys.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in steady demand at $2,50, and but little offering. Timothy Seed is dull and unchanged at $3 to $3,25.

SALT—Dull and unchanged; Allegheny river brands $1,75 to the trade, and $1,90 to $2 for small lots.

WHISKY—Is in steady demand but unchanged; sales at $1,20 for Rectified, and $1,30 for Highwines.

FLOUR—Is dull and weak, with a drooping tendency. We now quote Spring Wheat brands, $8 to $8,50, for fair to good, and $8,75 for choice. The mill prices are unchanged. Rye Flour unchanged at $8,50.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, October 24, 1868.

GENERAL REVIEW.

The Petroleum market has been moderately during the past week, the sales being larger in the aggregate than last week, as will be seen by the following: Sales of Crude, 12,500; Refined 50,000, bbls, total, 62,500 bbls against 52,600 bbls last week. The receipts of Crude for the week, were 19,027 bbls against 20,376 last week; receipts from January first to date, 873,803. Exports of Refined, 22,129 bbls, against 16,360 bbls last week: Exports from January 1st to date, 589,988 bbls. The general tone of market for the week, both Crude and Refined, has been towards increased firmness, though the advance thus far has been very slight.

CRUDE.

There was a firmer feeling manifested in the Crude market to-day, and while there was not a single sale reported, prices compared with yesterday, are a shade higher. We heard of one offer having been made early in the day to sell spot oil at 11½, but it was subsequently withdrawn, and at the close, so far as we could learn, there were no sellers below the even 12. This firmness which has prevailed for the past day or two, may be attributed to the improved character of the foreign advices, though as yet the advance has been very slight, not exceeding of reaching half a cent. For future months there seems to be no inquiry whatever, though, on the other hand, there are no offers to sell.

REFINED.

The market for Refined was also considerably firmer to-day, though, as in the case of Crude, there was but little done. October is reported firmer, sales having been made in Philadelphia at 29½ to 29¾c, and at the close, there were no sellers in this market below 29c. November is quoted strong at 29¼c, and December, nominally, at 29c. There seems to be more inquiry for next year than this, and we can report a line of 6,000 bbls, 500 each from January to December at 31c; the same figure was also offered for another line of the same kind, without finding a seller. For the first half of 1869, there were sellers at 30c, and buyers at 29c.

Philadelphia Iron Market.

PHILADELPHIA, October 24.—In pig metal there is an increased movement. No. 1 Anthracite sells at $42 to $43, and No. 2 at $38 to $39; 1,000 tons grey forge sold at $35 to $35,50. Scotch pig is worth $48 per ton. Manufactured iron commands $68 to $87,50 per ton for bar. Blooms are neglected.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

Work on the Iron Road—Progress of the Central Pacific Railroad.

The San Francisco Bulletin says:

"The line of the Central Pacific Railroad continues to be the scene of remarkable activity. From Sacramento to a point on the plains nearly or quite 500 miles eastward, the route is lively with the passage of freight, construction and supply cars, locomotives, lumber and store trains, teams and laborers. The company is employing about 10,000 workmen and over 8,000 teams. Its army of railroad builders, and the smaller army employed in getting out lumber and stone on contract, or acting as sutlers and providers, have built up numerous temporary towns, which give recent solitudes and desert tracts the air of old 'settlements.' The numerous workshops, factories, mills, depots and trading posts created by its necessities have diversified the industry of an extensive region and planted the germs of permanent improvement.

"The transit of the regular passenger and freight trains twice a day is but a slight incident in the immense activity of movement, business and labor along the whole line. It is not too much to say that the building of the Central Pacific has distributed a population of 15,000 or 20,000 through a region before chiefly uninhabited, and has created fifteen or twenty towns that promise to be permanent, besides numerous camps and villages which serve a temporary purpose. The woods of the Sierra Nevada ring for a hundred miles with the strokes of axemen and the click of quarrymen and stone-cutters. At one point alone (Truckee) twenty-five or thirty saw mills are in operation getting out lumber for ties, buts, boarding, frames and roofing. The Truckee river is clogged with logs in places, floating on the way to be sawed. On Donner Lake recently could be seen a boom of 500 logs which would make nearly 500,000 feet of sawed lumber; and bare granite cliffs about the lake constantly resound with the stroke of the woodmen's axes, the shouts of the ox-drivers hauling logs, the groan and crash of falling trees, the whistle and rumble of passing trains.

"Lumber of every description is piled along the road waiting for cars to convey it where it is needed to extend the track, to make snow-sheds, or to build stations, depots, stores and dwellings. Seventy locomotives and several hundred cars of various kinds are continually passing to and fro on different portions of the route, engaged in the transportation of material, supplies and laborers. Every day 500 tons of material for the extension of the track are passed over the Sierra, surmounting an altitude of 7,000 feet and pushing on to the front, a distance of from 300 to 400 miles east of Sacramento. Exertion is redoubled as winter approaches to get as much grade finished and as much material forwarded as possible before the heavy snows set in; also to complete the roofing and siding of the snow-sheds formed during the present season. When the snow does come, unless the winter is an unusually mild one, the sound of the woodman's axe will cease, the buzzing saw-mills will be hushed, the bustle of the fresh pine towns will be stilled, and the chief work in the snow-belt of the Sierra will be to keep the track open and pass the trains.

"All the stir and labor now witnessed are directed to pushing the iron road as far as possible towards the head of Salt Lake before winter. On Monday last the passenger cars began running to Winnemucca, 324 miles east of Sacramento. The track is laid about 24 miles further, say nearly to Emigration Cañon, and the grading is completed for at least 50 miles further; while one army of graders is making road bed still another 50 miles beyond. The distance from Sacramento to the north end of Salt Lake is 651 miles. Track is laid for 348 miles of this distance, and is being extended at the average rate of about 2½ miles per day. The time at which the track will reach the Lake is now only a question of motive, power and weather. The grading may all be completed in three months, for another force, under contract with the Mormons, is grading 190 miles this side of the Lake. With the road-bed completed before the ground freezes, track can be laid through the winter as fast as the material can be forwarded.

"About five hundred tons of material—ties, rails, spikes, bolts, chairs, &c.—are required for two miles of track, and to transport this across the summit of the Sierra, over a heavy ascending grade, requires about fifty cars and ten locomotives daily. The company need more motive power for this and its other business, and has ordered fifteen locomotives to be shipped from New York by way of the Isthmus immediately. Iron is coming fast enough already, and the tamarack groves of the Sierra furnish the ties. The transporting power of the company is so largely devoted to pushing its road material ahead that it is obliged to refuse a great deal of custom freight, much to the inconvenience of the traders in the mountains and in Washoe. Everything must bend at present to the construction of the railway. The company is playing for a big stake, in which the farmers, manufacturers and merchants of California are equally interested—the ownership of the entire route to Salt Lake, and the control of Utah, with its population of nearly two hundred thousand, increasing at the rate of ten per cent. per annum.

"The Union Pacific Company is working from the eastern side for the same objective, and has pushed a grading force beyond the three hundred mile limit fixed by Congress; but the Central folks are not afraid of being passed, and have made arrangments which they are confident will enable them to reach the north end of the lake first, if they do not get beyond it. They deny the report that the Union Pacific had telegraphed an offer of the free use of so much of their grade as the Central could first iron, and of payment for so much of the Central grade as the Union should be able to iron. The two companies are not grading in parallel lines near the lake, as supposed by some, but have left gaps in the one main line in their anxiety to press forward either way, way, and are bound to connect at some point as required by law. There is now little difference between the distance which each company has to build to reach the same point north of the lake, and only about five hundred miles in all remain to be constructed of the one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five originally to be built between Sacramento and Omaha.

It is claimed that sweet potatoes dried and ground make the best imitation of coffee that is known. It is asserted that the South can derive a large return from the cultivation of this vegetable, which can be raised at a cost of sixty cents per bushel. The saccharine matter in the sweet potatoes renders it necessary to keep them from the air in order to prevent mould. As nutritious food and a preventative of disease, this vegetable is said to be a most excellent article for ship's stores.

A MAN and his wife, who live in a tenement house in Springfield, Mass., have not spoken to each other for several years. It is merely to see who will hold out longest. When the man wants to say anything to his wife, he addresses his remarke to their little son, who also acts as the medium through which the wife communicates with her husband.

The Mystery of an Old Fort.

A letter writer, in describing Fort Marion, one of the defences of St. Augustine, Fla., gives the following story: Fort Marion has an old, solemn, and rather threatening warlike appearance. The outer wall, five feet thick, of the material called coquina (ko-keno), found in great abundance on the beach, near the lighthouse, has quite a slant, or inclination inward, several degrees from a perpendicular. An inner wall, two-and-a-half feet thick, standing perpendicular, keeps in position a bank of sand some eight or ten feet thick, between the outer and inner walls. Behind these walls are arranged the casemates, strongly arched overhead; and extending all around the interior. Upon these arches and the walls a floor of brick, stone and concrete is laid, whereon the heavy guns of the fort are placed; very few are in position now. Within the enclosure of the fort below are piles of cannon balls and quite a number of old Spanish guns, partly eaten by rust. In 1858, while putting some heavy guns in position on the fort, an arch gave way, making a hole some five feet wide, disclosing a cell hitherto unknown to any person living. In this new and strange apartment were found one or two gun carriages, made of mahogany, finely wrought. During the excavations made by the officers, one of them accidentally discovered the appearance of a doorway that had been masoned up. They determined to test the reality of the suggestion, and removing a few stones revealed an opening into another cell, where was found a bedstead, on which lay the skeleton of a man chained to a huge staple in the wall; beside the bed stood an open mahogany chest five feet long, two and a half feet wide, sides of plank two inches thick, mounted with huge iron strap hinges and three enormous locks. No clue has yet been found to the history of this case, or the offence of this terribly punished victim.

A Sister's Devotion.

A California paper tells this story: "A convicted murderer, sentenced to death at Austin, Nevada, was last week furnished by his sister with materials for writing, three files, four fine saws, and poison with which to commit suicide is case his efforts to escape failed. They were concealed in the back of the frame of a large photograph of his sister, which she brought to him and had the jailor to deliver it to him in her presence. With the saws he had nearly cut off his irons when his attempt was discovered and the tools found, though the poison was yet effectually concealed. The sister promised other assistance, which she was to render in person, as others were afraid, and a plan whereby, under pretence of giving another prisoner into his charge, the jailor was to be induced to open the door, when he was to be overpowered by the pretended guard and the murderer spirited away. The sister was indicted for aiding to rescue a prisoner."

THE Union Pacific Railroad will in a few days be so far completed, that passengers, by traveling continuously, may pass over the line from Philadelphia to San Francisco in eleven days. The time from Philadelphia now to Omaha is now but three days, and on Tuesday next the railroad is to be opened to Bryan, 860 miles from Omaha. This will shorten the time between Omaha to eight days. From Omaha to Bryan the time will be forty hours; from Bryan to Salt Lake City, thirty-two hours, by stage; from Salt Lake City to Wadsworth, four days; from Wadsworth to San Franscisco, by the Central Pacific Railroad, one day. The fare from Omaha to Bryan is $64.15, to Salt Lake, $110, and to Sacramento, $280.

THE marriage law of Scotland is now exciting the comment of the newspapers of that country. Though the principle that "consent makes a marringe" is recognized, yet a matrimonial union without the publication of the banns is irregular, and after the lapse of time causes great trouble in producing evidence of the ceremony. Complaints are made that the parish clerks charge enormous fees, and that poor people are forced to dispense with the legal formalities. Sweeping changes in the statute have, therefore, been proposed, but it is believed that serious opposition will be provoked among those persons who resist any kind of improvement in the law, no matter how beneficial it may be.

THE Soldiers of Lawrence county are entitled to the lasting gratitude of all friends of good order and progress for the gallant manner in which they have supported the principles for which they fought. But remember, boys, that the fight is not over. There still remains one more line of breastworks to capture. The downfall will sweep away the last vestige of rebellion. Then prepare for the charge, boys; draw your belts tighter, show the old determined front, and when the hour comes make one vigorous dash, and the prize is ours. The enemy is already disheartened, and one determined onset will throw him into irretrievable confusion.—Lawrence Journal.

FOR SALE--REAL ESTATE.

FOR SALE.

A FARM OF 30 ACRES, on the line of the Connellsville Railroad, 27 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa. The improvements are a fine two-story brick house, with ten large rooms and hall. A large frame bank barn, with No. 1 stabling, and all other outbuildings in complete order. One of the best of orchards, of all kinds of fruit. The soil is rich new bottom. This property adjoins the village of Buena Vista, and has the advantage of churches, schools, mills, stores, &c., and will be sold at the low price of $15,000. The improvements alone are worth at least all that is asked for the property, to say nothing about the land, which is worth for garden purposes at least $10,000. For full particulars call at my office, or WILLIAM A. BELL, Esq., on the premises.

ALSO, A FARM OF 40 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Connellsville Railroad, about 18 miles from the city. The improvements are a new stone dwelling, with eight rooms; a good barn and other outbuildings. This property is offered at a very low price. Call and secure yourself a good bargain.

ALSO A FARM OF 120 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., 17 miles from the city, on the Connellsville Railroad, opposite Elrod's Station, within 30 minutes' walk of the Station. The improvements are a frame house containing four rooms and kitchen, with a good cellar underneath; very good barn and other outbuildings. A No. 1 orchard, containing about 200 fruit bearing trees, all in good condition. 90 acres cleared land, the residue in good timber, underlaid with 23 acres of coal.

ALSO, A TWO-STORY BRICK HOUSE adjoining the Borough of Elizabeth, Allegheny county, Pa., containing 4 rooms and kitchen. Lot 60 feet front by 126 back to an alley. A good stable, wash house, bake-oven and other outbuildings. I am authorized to sell it at the low price of $1,800, on good terms.

ALSO, In the Borough of Elizabeth, a good two-story BRICK HOUSE, containing 4 rooms. Lot 120 feet square. Will be sold at the exceedingly low price of $2,500, on easy terms.

ALSO, My Farm, known by the name of "Willow Banks," situated on the Connellsville Railroad, 17 miles from the city, containing 79 ACRES, all in good condition. The improvements are a No. 1 brick house, two stories high, newly painted, containing six rooms, two halls running full length of the house. The house is situated on a beautiful knoll, is surrounded by fruit trees, shrubbery, vines and flowers, with a graded avenue running to the Yough. River. Also, a large frame bank barn, smoke house, wash house, coal house, bake-oven and other outbuildings, and a never-failing well of water. Two large orchards, containing from six to seven hundred fruit trees, nearly all in good bearing condition. This farm abounds in small fruits, viz: Currants, raspberries, gooseberries, and a fine large strawberry patch, which, in connexion with the richness of the soil and nearness to the city, makes it very desirable for gardening purposes. Very convenient to schools, churches, stores and blacksmith shop.

ALSO, A FARM OF 158 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., 31 miles from the city of Pittsburgh, on the Connellsville Railroad, at Suter Station. The improvements are a common log house, a good frame barn, with stabling for ten horses; a corn crib and wagon shed; good orchard of fruit trees; fencing very good. 100 acres cleared, the residue in heavy timber land. This farm is valuable—first, for its excellent soil; secondly, its timber; and thirdly, it contains more limestone than any other farm in Pennsylvania, all accessible. The lower vein of limestone is 10 feet thick; several other veins ranging from 3½ to 6 ft. in thickness, lie under the whole farm. For particulars enquire of ELI SUTER, Esq., at Suter Station, or at my office.

ALSO, 17 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; one hundred and twenty acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered, and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm.

ALSO, A beautifully situated tract of 60 ACRES of valuable land, under good fencing, situated in McCandless township, Allegheny county, Pa., on a township road, 7 measured miles from the Market House, Allegheny City. This tract is well adapted for a garden or dairy farm, being convenient and of easy access to the city, and near enough to the line of the Mahoning Railroad to make it very desirable for country seats, for persons doing business in the city.

ALSO, The best farm in Young township, Indiana county, Pa., 4 miles from Western Penna. R. R. at Livermore Station, containing 300 ACRES—225 acres cleared and under No. 1 fencing, as well as fine farming condition; the balance in good white oak timber. The improvements are 2 two-story frame houses, of eight rooms each and finished basements and attics; a large bank barn 50 by 80 feet, a two-story spring house and other necessary outbuildings, all in good order; 5 acres of orchard, of choice variety of fruits; 8 feet vein of coal (now open,) underlying the whole tract, and limestone in abundance, with plenty of springs of never-failing water. Taken all togeth r houses, fencing, soil, nice rolling surface, public highways, churches, schools, mills, &c., I know of no more inviting and desirable tract of land in Western Pennsylvania.

ALSO, FARM AND MILLS. A small tract of 60 ACRES of very valuable land in Derry township, Westmoreland county, Pa., well fenced and in a high state of cultivation, with new frame dwelling, and other outbuildings; a new grist and saw mill complete, with two run of burrs, two bolting cloths, and all the needed fixtures, in good order, and a young orchard of choice fruits; lane is all underlaid with a six foot vein of coal, now opened and worked, at the back of the mill, and limestone in abundance. Call soon and secure a good bargain.

ALSO, FARM OF 160 ACRES, situated immediately upon the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Blairsville Intersection, 54 miles east of the city. The improvements are a two-story frame house of 8 rooms, a No. 1 barn, 45 by 65 feet, the best of stabling and other outbuildings. The land lies well, is well fenced, is in good farming order, and will be sold very cheap if applied for soon.

Disturbed His Slumbers.—John Roach alleges that Edward Price disturbed his slumbers on Friday by entering his bedroom and endeavoring to haul him out of bed. The action was accompanied by sundry fierce threats on the part of Price. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing by Alderman Taylor.

Smithson's Auction Rooms, Shoe Emporium and Blanket House, 55 and 57 Fifth avenue.

Malicious Mischief.—Mrs. Driscol, a resident of Fosters Alley, made information before the Mayor yesterday charging Geo. Hall with malicious mischief. She alleges that the accused came to her residence on Saturday night, and asked to be admitted, and that after being refused admission he broke her door open. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Stable Robbed.—At an early hour on Saturday morning, the stable of C. C. Davis, corner of Gist street and Pennsylvania avenue, was entered by some thieves, who carried off a quantity of hames, saddle, bridle, &c. The thieves broke open a door in the rear of the stable, through which they gained admittance. There is no clue which will lead to their detection.

Smithson's Auction Rooms, Shoe Emporium and Blanket House, 55 and 57 Fifth avenue.

House Entered.—The residence of Jacob Wingler, a German shoemaker, on Lacock street, Allegheny, was entered by thieves early Saturday morning. They gained admittance through a cellar door, which had been left unfastened, and after roaming through the interior, without finding anything suited to their fancy, they left, awakening in their exit the family, but escaping without detection.

Alleged Felonious Assault.—I. H. Echers made information on Saturday, before Alderman McMaslers, against Henry Digman for felonious assault and battery with intent to kill. Echers states that he was sleeping in his room, in a down town hotel, on Friday evening, when Digman entered and jumped upon him, cut a fearful gash across his face with a knife, and otherwise terribly abused him.

Winter is coming rapidly upon us, and prudent housekeepers are already preparing for it. Whilst our homes are thus being looked after, and our wants in the cold, bleak season are anticipated, the poor should not be forgotten. The numerous charities in this city that take care of the poor during the winter are preparing for action, and the charitably disposed will keep them in remembrance.

Accident to a Soldier.—Adam Kirtz, a gallant Union soldier, met with a painful accident, on Friday last, at Rochester, Pa. While getting off the train at that place he fell with one leg on the track, over which the train passed. The leg was horribly crushed and lacerated, and will probably have to be amputated. The unfortunate man lost an arm during the war, which makes the case much more distressing.

Sewer Commenced.—The preparatory work for the new sewer on Fourth avenue commenced on Saturday, by the removal of the cobble stone pavement. The waiting room of the Oakland Passenger Railway will hereafter be located at the Court House. The excavation for the sewer, which will be three feet in circumference, will be commenced as soon as possible, and the whole work will be pushed rapidly to completion.

Church Opening.—The new and elegant Third Presbyterian Church, Sixth street, will be opened for the worship of Almighty God on Sunday next, on which occasion Prof. Wilcox, of Boston, one of the most experienced and expert organists of the country will preside at the organ. It is proposed during the stay of Prof. W. to favor Pittsburgh with a grand organ concert, which will probably take place on Saturday evening next. The sale of pews will take place next Monday morning.

Serious Charges.—Informations were lodged before Alderman McMasters on Saturday against one of the wealthiest farmers of Bower Hill, Washington county, charging him with adultery and fornication and bastardy. The accused is somewhat advanced in years and has a wife and seven children living. Some time ago, it is said, he was in Pittsburgh with the sister of the prosecutor's, whom he took to a hotel and accomplished her ruin. He was arrested and gave bail in the sum of $4,000 for his appearance at Court.

Burnell's Museum.—The congress of living curiosities at this favorite place of amusement, this week, embraces some of the most wonderful that has ever been presented to our public. In addition to the four legged child, which has been drawing immensely the past few weeks, Miss Ann E. Leak, the lady born without arms, makes her first appearance to-day. She executes with her toes all kinds of needle work, writes, cuts, chrochets in as artistic a manner as persons more favored are enabled to do with their fingers. The Major has also re-engaged the White and Black Twins, who make among the first of living wonders.

Insane Boy Arrested.—Michael Braley, a boy about fifteen years of age, who was some months since taken to the City Farm, was several weeks ago taken from that institution by his mother, who resides in the Second ward. Within a few days past he has grown worse, and became so violent as to be unmanageable and dangerous. His mother appeared at the Mayor's office yesterday and stated the case, when, in order to bring the matter befere the Court and have him properly cared for, he was arrested and committed for surety of the peace.

Supposed Stolen Goods.—Peter Zern made information on Saturday, before Alderman Taylor, against Ellen Cole, colored, for larceny. Officer Bell proceeded to Ellen's boarding house with a search warrant, and discovered a large quantity of ladies' wearing apparel, amounting in value to over fifty dollars. He arrested Ellen and brought her to the magistrate's office, along with the goods. Mr. Zern, however, failed to identify any of the goods, and the accused was discharged. The clothing still remains at the office. It consists of fine poplin, barege and calico dresses, and a lot of fine linen underwear. The articles will be returned if not identified in a few days.

Meeting at the Wigwam.

The Republicans of East Liberty and vicinity held a large and spirited meeting at the Wigwam of the Twentieth and Twenty-first wards Saturday night.

The meeting was organized by calling Major William Frew to the Chair and appointing a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

The East Liberty Glee Club sang several campaign songs, and the meeting was ably addressed by C. W. Robb and John M. Kirkpatrick, Esqs.

Painful Accident.

Mr. Jacob Conrad, an employee of Messrs. T. B. Young & Co., met with a painful accident during the Republican torchlight procession on Thursday evening last. Mr. Conrad was riding on a wagon and assisting in the loading and firing of a small field piece carried in the vehicle. While loading the gun at the corner of Wayne and Liberty streets it was prematurely discharged, dislocating Mr. Conrad's wrist and lacerating his right arm in a shocking manner. He was taken into the office of Drs. Burgher and McClelland and his injuries attended to by them, after which he was taken to his residence in the Fourteenth ward. Drs. Burgher and McClelland are in attendance upon him, and his employers are doing everything possible to make his situation comfortable.

Stabbing Affray.

On Sunday morning, shortly after twelve o'clock, a fight occurred in Birmingham, near the corner of Carson and Grosvenor streets, in which a man named William Moore was dangerously cut and stabbed by Patrick Finnegan. Moore was carried to his home, near Adams' glass house. An examination of his injuries showed that the knife had penetrated his kidneys, inflicting a wound that will probably cause his death. There was also a severe cut on the right arm, and a number of slight cuts upon various parts of the body. Justice Lipp visited the wounded man and took his information, charging Finnegan with felonous assault and battery. A warrant was issued and placed in the hands of officer McCussy, of the Mayor's police, who will probably make the arrest this morning.

Fire.

About half past ten o'clock on Saturday night last, fire was discovered in the clothing store of Mr. Hanauer, No. 62 Market street, and an alarm was sounded from Box 13, to which the Fire Department responded promptly. The fire originated in the rear of the store, in the custom department, destroying the shelving and a lot of fine custom made goods, trimmings, &c. The origin of the fire is, so far, a mystery. Mr. Hanauer closed the store about fifteen minutes after ten o'clock, and went to his residence in the upper part of the city. The fact of there not being fire in the vicinity where the flames were first discovered, gave rise to the report that the place had been set on fire, which is doubtless correct. The damage will amount to about two thousand dollars, most of which is by water. It is said that the stock is fully insured in this city and Eastern companies.

Probably Fatal Accident.

Mr. William Daley, a division boss in the employ of the Panhandle Railroad Company, met with a serious accident at Noblestown last Friday, which will probably result in his death. It seems that Mr. Daley had a gang of men employed at the place where the accident occurred and was sitting on the main track directing their labors when engine No. 7 came along. The unfortunate man failing to notice the approach of the locomotive until too late, was struck on the head and knocked some distance. He received a fearful gash on his head, and it is probable his skull is fractured. His right arm was also broken. He was removed to a house in the vicinity where he received the proper attentions. Coroner Clawson was notified of his death, but on repairing to the scene found him still living though in a very precarious condition.

—The injured man died on Sunday morning, and Coroner Clawson went to Noblestown to hold the inquest, but had not returned last evening.

Opera House.

The succession of brilliant stars which have made the Opera House so attractive this season, is to be increased this week by the appearance of Mr. J. H. Hackett. Mr. H. is universally recognized as one of the best comedians on the stage, and in his line of specialities is unrivalled. He has made Shakspeare's great embodiment of droll humanity—Falstaff—his special property, and is so identified with the character on the American stage, that the mention of one name implies the thought of the other. We regret that Mr. Hackett's engagement is only for one week, and those who relish his rare fun and humor—and who does not?—will have to make the most of their brief opportunities. We prophesy that the crowds who have laughed away their indigestion over Owens' comicalities will take care to keep themselves in good health by continuing to laugh over Hackett. The bills for the week will comprise all of Hackett's best characters. This evening King Henry the IVth, with the great comedian, of course, in the character of Sir John Falstaff, will be played. To-morrow evening he will appear in his great personations of Rip Van Winkle and O'Callaghan.

The Lecture Season.

The Mercantile Library Association Lecture Committee, consisting of Messrs. B. F. Jennings, J. B. Morgan, Jr., W. N. Howard, John G. Holmes, A. H. Lane, W. L. Chalfant and George W. Dean, advertise the course of lectures for 1868-9 in another column. The Committee, framed out of some of the best material of the Library Association, have presented an array of orators, scholars and elocutionists, which will prove acceptable to the most fastidious of our lecture-going friends. Nor is the list completed, as negotiations are pending for other able representatives of the rostrum who will lecture this season. But a limited number of course tickets will be sold, and as those entitle the holders to reserved seats without extra charge, early application should be made for them. The season promises to be a brilliant and successful one, and in congratulating our readers on the rare intellectual feasts in store for them, we cannot forget the large measure of credit due the energetic committee that secured so many brilliant and acceptable people to contribute to the enjoyment of the community at large.

The McKeesport Fire.

The loss by the burning of Fulton, Bollman & Co's extensive rope manufactory, in McKeesport, aggregated $143,000—$25,000 on the buildings, $100,000 on the machinery and $18,000 on the stock. The insurance amounted to $122,000, and was divided among the various companies as follows:

Rowdyism.

Never was there a time in the history of Pittsburgh when rowdyism prevailed to such an extent as it has for the past few months, and we doubt if there is a city in the Union, at the present time, where drunkenness, vagabondism blackguardism, and the hundred other vices included in the above, are so prevalent as in Pittsburgh. If some of the venerable and good men who dwelt in this city many years ago, but have long since taken up their abode in another world, should, by some superhuman agency, have been permitted to return and witness the debauchery of Saturday night last, they would doubtless have imagined themselves in the regions inhabited by the spirits of the damned, so great would have been the contrast between Pittsburgh now and what it was when they left it. From eleven o'clock at night until far into the "wee sma' hours" a gang of drunken blackguards made Fifth avenue the scene of their rowdyism. Respectable citizens were insulted within a square of the Mayor's office, and night was made hideous by the drunken brawls of rowdies in different portions of the city.

To such an alarming extent does the evil prevail as to render it unsafe for our citizens to traverse many of the streets after nightfall, unarmed, and ladies are liable to be insulted on the most public thoroughfares, no matter whether alone or provided with an escort. Is there no remedy? Must the city be turned over to these blackguards and rowdies? The fact of our being engaged in an exciting political campaign is not a sufficient excuse on the part of the authorities for the toleration of such lawlessness. Our citizens are willing to make all due allowance on that account, and would look over an occasional violation of law and order, but they are not willing that the city should be turned into a pandemonium and all the fiends of the lower regions turned loose to hold high carnival in our midst.

The wrong demands a remedy, and a speedy one at that. If the present police force of one hundred men are not competent and reliable, in Heaven's name let them be discharged and others appointed; and if one hundred is not sufficient, let us have two hundred, or as many more if it is necessary. For the credit of our city abroad, and the protection of our citizens at home, a reform is necessary, and it cannot be made too soon.

He was sentenced to pay a fine of $30, and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for thirty days.

LARCENY OF A TRUNK.

William Jones, who plead guilty to the larceny of a trunk from Ezra Castle, was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of thirty days in the county jail.

FALSE REPRESENTATIONS.

Lawrence Purcell, convicted on Thursday last on an indictment for obtaining $119.12 worth of goods from James Bryan, liquor merchant, by false pretences, was sentenced to pay a fine of $200, and undergo an imprisonment of ten months in the county jail.

THE SIMONTON ROBBERY.

Cyrus Trump, who was convicted on Monday last of the larceny of a lot of jewelry from Simonton's jewelry store, on Liberty street, was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of two years in the Penitentiary.

ILLEGAL LIQUOR SELLING.

H. Neeland, saloon keeper in the Diamond, plead guilty to two indictments for illegal liquor selling. He was sentenced on one to pay the costs of prosecution and a fine of fifty dollars. Sentence on the other indictment was suspended.

Mary M'Cauley, convicted on a charge of selling liquor on Sunday, and with selling without license, was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars in each case, and was committed until the sentence is complied with.

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS.

A motion for a new trial in the case of John Hughes was argued by A. G. Cochran, Esq., the motion was overruled, and sentence deferred.

A motion for a new trial and in arrest of judgment was made in the case of Margaret J. Douglass, convicted of keeping a ferocious dog, on the ground that she was a married woman. Judgment was arrested.

The time for the removal of the Spruce alley nuisance (Smith's foundry) was extended for twenty days.

Death of Lieut. W. W. Lyon.

We learn from the Erie papers that this gallant young officer died in that city on the 19th instant, after a lingering illness, the germ of which may be traced to the Richmond prison, whither he was taken with a wounded shoulder and arm, received in the battle of Gaines Mill, during McClellan's campaign on the Peninsula. Lieutenant Lyon, in consequence of his wounds, was, after his exchange, assigned to post duty, and resided several months as recruiting officer in this city, in 1864, where very many warm admirers and friends will feel the intelligence of his death as they would a family bereavement. Lieutenant Lyon was born at Erie in 1841, was the youngest of several sons of the Rev. Dr. George A. Lyon of that city, and a nephew of our fellow-citizen, W. A. Herron, Esq. He possessed fine natural abilities, a liberal education, a remarkable activity and energy of mental and physical constitution, was full of ardent patriotism, and of course became a most admirable officer. At the time of his death he had for two years administered the office of Assistant United States Assessor, under the revenue laws, at his native city, with such integrity and fidelity, as commended him to the confidence of all parties. The life of this noble young man is another precious sacrifice by his friends and family, and by his native city and State, on the altar of our country for the preservation of its institutions and the honor of its flag. We doubt not his mortal has put on a blessed immortality. May his friends find peace and joy in this faith.
